Faculty and course members of 62nd NDC course call on the President India is taking strides to become an 'Atmanirbhar Bharat' & various policy initiatives are being implemented to make this vision possible: President

New Delhi, Sept. 15 (PIB)

The faculty and course members of 62nd National Defence College Course, called on the President of India, Smt Droupadi Murmu, at Rashtrapati Bhavan today. Addressing the gathering, the President said that security is a term which we often use in our conversations. But it has wide ramifications. Its interpretation has expanded drastically in the past decades. What was limited to mere territorial integrity has now come to be seen in political and economic contexts also. Thus, the aim of the NDC course to study "strategic, economic, scientific, political and industrial aspects of national defence" is even more relevant today. She was happy to note that the NDC course has over the years lived up to its aim of educating its participants to have a deep understanding of these issues.

Noting that the 62nd

NDC Course has 62 participants from the armed forces, 20 from civil services, 35 from friendly foreign countries and 1 from corporate sector, she said that it is this unique feature of this course which has made it win immense appreciation. She said that it gives the course members an opportunity to know different perspectives, thereby widening the horizons of their thoughts and understanding.

The President said that we are in a dynamic world where even a small change can have a wide impact. Sometimes, it can have safety and security connotations. The pace and tide of the Covid pandemic is just an example of the threat which the humanity faces today. It makes us realize the vulnerability of humankind. Every threat makes us think about the need to fight it and prevent its recurrence. We need to prepare ourselves to face not just the traditional threats but even the unseen ones which also include the vagaries of nature. Climate change and sustainable development are issues which are of prime importance today. It is the need of the hour that countries across the board should come together and work out solutions for them. It is at this point that the strategic policies coincide with the foreign policies of the countries. It is a multi-discipline and multi-dimensional approach for which we need to equip ourselves.

The President said that India as a nation is taking strides to become an Atmanirbhar Bharat. Various policy initiatives are being implemented to make this vision possible. It is this vision which brings India on the path of development and progress. She said that it was a proud moment for each Indian when recently the first indigenously built aircraft carrier, Vikrant, was inducted in the Indian Navy. Such steps bring a fresh hope and inspiration in the people of India. She expressed confidence that we would continue to tread this path of progress in a steadfast manner.

Engineers should think innovatively which, she said is very important. There is also need for updating ones knowledge and keep on interacting with fellow engineers and share experiences to achieve synergy.

Pointing to the three main areas which need special focus in A&N Islands i.e. water supply, power supply and road construction, the Commissioner said that engineering solution, smart solution and technical solutions is desperately needed in our Islands and the engineering fraternity have the potential to solve these three issues. She called upon the Engineers to prepare a roadmap to address these three issues, for which, the A&N Administration will provide all kinds of support. The innovation, initiatives, dedication, commitment & passion to solve these issues should come from Engineers, she said adding that in a small union territory with less population, we can achieve it.

In his address, the Chief Engineer, APWD, Shri M Sivarama Subramaniyan enlightened the gathering on the life of Visvesvaraya and said that Visvesvaraya worked tirelessly throughout his life for the upliftment & betterment of the common man. In recognition of his selfless service and immense contribution to the mankind, Visvesvaraya was conferred with the highest civilian Award i.e. Bharat Ratna, the CE added.

Honorary Secretary, Shri Sajan Thomas presented the annual report of the Institution of Engineers (India), A&N State Centre Port Blair. The inaugural function concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by Er. Arun Bepari. Vinesh Phogat scripts history; becomes first Indian woman wrestler to win two medals at World C'ships

Serbia, Sept. 15

Vinesh Phogat has become the first Indian woman wrestler to win two medals at the World Championships after clinching a bronze in 53 kilogram category in Belgrade, Serbia yesterday. The Commonwealth Games 2022 gold medalist defeated reigning European champion Emma Malmgren of Sweden. It was a remarkable comeback for three-time CWG gold-medalist Vinesh after her shock qualification round defeat as she beat Swedish opponent Malmgren 8-0 in the bronze medal round. Vinesh had made it to the bronze play-off through the repechage round after losing to Khulan Batkhuyag of Mongolia, in her first bout on Tuesday, September 13. This is her second bronze medal at the Championships. She had previously earned a podium position in the 2019 edition of the tournament at Nur-Sultan, Kazakhstan.
