MoU signed between SBI and A&N Police: Heralding a new era for staff welfare

Port Blair, Jan. 25

The Andaman and Nicobar Police has signed Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the State Bank of India for a special Police Salary Package (PSP), to provide better banking services and additional facilities for the police personnel of Andaman and Nicobar Police today. The Police Salary Package (PSP) is a package designed for the personnel of Andaman and Nicobar Police. Hitherto, the salary accounts of personnel in SBI were on individual basis and thus were bereft of the privileges that the other State Police Forces and CAPF enjoyed. By entering into the MoU with SBI, Andaman and Nicobar Police has secured several advantages and benefits for its personnel and their families.

During the outbreak of measles in 1999, mumps in 2000 and malaria spread among Jarawa tribe in 2001, he provided untiring service with AAJVS

Under this scheme, some of the benefits offered include Personal Accidental Insurance cover (Rs 40 lakhs to Rs 1 crore), Permanent, Total and Partial Disability Cover of Rs. 40 lakhs, SBI Rishrey Family Saving Account with benefits for upto 04 family members etc. The package also offer preferential rates of interest on various loans offered by SBI as well as waiver of annual charges, processing fees etc.

Further, in case of death of the A&N Police personnel, the family of the deceased will be provided with free add-on covers such as expenses on Air Ambulance, cost of child education, marriage of girl child etc. Several of these benefits will continue even after the superannuation of the

GREETINGS

I extend my warm Greetings to the people of Andaman and Nicobar Islands on the occasion of the 74th Republic Day.

On this special day, let us all come together to celebrate the spirit of unity, freedom, and democracy that our great nation embodies.

On this day, in 1950, our country became a Sovereign, Socialist, Secular and Democratic Republic and this is the time to commit ourselves to live upto the ideals enshrined in our constitution and put combined efforts to take our country to the path of everlasting progress and prosperity.

I extend my warm wishes to everyone for a prosperous and peaceful year ahead.

Jai Hind.

GREETINGS

On the occasion of Saraswati Puja, I extend my warm greetings to the people of Andaman and Nicobar Islands. On this special day, I extend my special greetings to the student community, as we all know that Goddess Saraswati is the embodiment of knowledge, music, art, and speech.

As we all know, education is the backbone of any society and it is the students who are the future of our nation. The blessings of Goddess Saraswati will help the students to excel in their studies and achieve great heights in their chosen fields.

I also urge the students to take this opportunity to rededicate themselves to their studies and to strive for excellence in their academic pursuits. Let us all pledge to make the most of this auspicious occasion to gain knowledge and wisdom and to become responsible citizens of our great country.

(Kuldeep Rai Sharma)
Member of Parliament,
Andaman and Nicobar Islands

GREETINGS

On the auspicious occasion of the 74th Republic Day, I convey my heartiest greeting and best wishes to all the residents of A&N Islands.

On this day, in 1950, our nation was established as the largest democratic republic and 'We, the people of India' gave to ourselves the Constitution that is an inspired document of our collective vision. The diversity and vibrancy of our democracy is acclaimed worldwide. It is this spirit of unity and of being one nation, which is celebrated every year as Republic Day. It is also an occasion to remember the martyrs who made supreme sacrifice in service to the nation. Today, let us once again vow to dedicate ourselves to live upto the ideals of justice, liberty, equality and fraternity enshrined in our Constitution.

I appeal to all Islanders to celebrate the occasion while adhering to COVID appropriate behavior.

On this occasion, I wish for lasting joy and happiness in the life of all Islanders and that our Islands continue to progress on the path of peace and prosperity.

13th National Voters' Day celebrated ...

Election Commission of India has focus on popularization of new technological tools that enabled the Commission to bring in more efficiency, widespread reach, and accountability in the conduct of free and fair elections.

Under the guidance of Election Commission of India, A&N Administration has organized series of activities aimed at maximizing voter enrolment by building awareness amongst all sections of our society. Right to vote is an important right in any democracy and every vote counts, said the CEO requesting the eligible voters to vote freely and fairly, without fear or inducement, whenever there is an election. The CEO also showered all praise for the students of JNRM for staging Nukkad Natak and cultural programmes on the importance of voting and power of vote.

The CEO, Jt. CEO and Dy. CEO gave away the prizes to the winners of various competitions organised as part of the NVD celebration. The CEO also felicitated Ms Pushpa and Shri Sanjay, BLOs for their painstaking efforts to register new voters and for creating awareness about participating in election process. The CEO also presented certificate & reward to Ms. Shravani, a student of Boys School for creating a beautiful poster while participating in National Voter Awareness contest which was displayed to the audience during the function.

In his address on the occasion, the Joint Chief Electoral Officer, A&N Island, Shri Hari Kallikkat, IAS, said, National Voters' Day is celebrated on January 25 every year across the country since 2011 to mark the Foundation Day of Election Commission of India, i.e. 25th January, 1950. The main purpose of the NVD celebration is to create electoral awareness amongst citizens and encourage them to participate in the electoral process. The Jt. CEO further said that this year's logo reflects the joy and diversity of voting. The Ashoka Chakra in the background stands for the world's largest democracy, while each voter's inked finger symbolizes their active participation in the electoral process and a checkmark represents a voter's ability to make a well-informed choice. He also urged voters to avail online facilities for registration, shifting, deletion and correction by downloading Voter Helpline App or log on to ECI's website www.nvsp.in, www.voterportal.eci.gov.in and www.ceoandaman.nic.in.

Earlier, welcoming the chief guest and others present on the occasion, the Deputy CEO, Shri Dilkhush Meena, IAS while informing the gathering about the significance of the Day, said the primary goal of NVD is to increase voter turnout and education about the electoral process among the general public. One of the largest celebrations in the country, NVD is observed on a variety of scales, including the national, state, district, constituency, and polling booth levels, he added.

The function concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by the Assistant Electoral Registration Officer, Shri Ramesh Kumar.
