National Sports Day befittingly celebrated Chief Secretary felicitates outstanding sportspersons for their medal winning performances

Sports is an integral part of curriculum & students should never distance themselves from sporting activities: CS

Staff Reporter

Port Blair, Aug. 29

It was joyous occasion for the sportsperson of A&N Islands when they received prizes and trophies from the Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS at the valedictory function of week-long sports events organized by the Department of Youth Affairs & Sports in association with Education Department at TGCE auditorium here today. The function also marked the National Sports Day-2022 celebration in Isles, which is celebrated every year on August 29 to commemorate hockey legend Major Dhyani Chand's birthday. The function was graced by the Adhyaksha, ZPSA, Smt. Pramila Kumari, Commissioner-cum-Secretary, Sports, Ms. Nandini Paliwal, IAS, DGP, Shri Neeraj

Addressing the gathering, especially good number of students present on the occasion, the Chief Secretary stated that sports is an integral part of school curriculum & students should never distance themselves from sporting activities. He urged them to give importance to sports as sports activities not only keeps a person active & fit but also develop one's overall personality. Sports activities make realize one's true potential and it also develops qualities like 'never give up' and 'never under estimate oneself', the Chief Secretary remarked.

The Chief Secretary

further mentioned that there is no dearth of talents in these Islands. This, he said, is very much evident from the fact that with around four lakh population in Isles, good number of students have been trained and nurtured in sports. These students brought medals representing our Islands at the National and International level competitions and the credits should go to SAI/coaches for providing good training to the students. The Chief Secretary also complimented noted chess player from Isles, Ms. Kashthuri Bhai for her impressive performances in chess at National & International events.

The Chief Secretary lauded the efforts of Sports Department for organizing various competitions as part of the 'National Sports Day' celebration and thanked the parents for encouraging the students to participate in sports events.

On the occasion, the Chief Secretary felicitated outstanding sports personalities of A&N Islands for their contribution in sports. They included
