

PM shares his thoughts in 'Mann Ki Baat' prog. over AIR

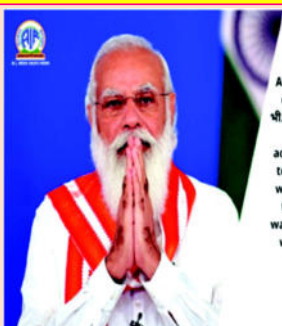

Sports competition should be held in every part of country including remote villages to further momentum created by recent Olympics: PM

Urges people to get vaccinated for COVID-19 & reminds mantra of 'Dawai Bhi, Kadai Bhi'

New Delhi, Aug.29

Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi has called upon the people of the country to strive to further the momentum the field of sports has gained through the recent Olympics and contribute whatever they can to promote sports culture in the country. He said, the nation must garner expertise in a variety of sports taking advantage of this opportunity.

In his 'Mann Ki Baat' Programme on All India Radio today, Shri Modi said, sports competition should be held everywhere including remote villages and other parts of the country as it is only through competition that sports shall evolve.

Get vaccinated and Take Precautions

And in the midst of all these efforts, we have one more thing to remember. दवाई भी, कादई भी... Get vaccinated and take precautions. More than 62 crore vaccine doses have been administered in the country, but still we have to be careful, be vigilant. And yes, as always, whenever you do something new, think new, then definitely include me in that. I will be waiting for your letter and messages. With this wish, once again many felicitations to all of you for the upcoming festivals. Thank you very much.

Namaskar!

He added that this time, the Olympics has created a major impact on the mindset of the people and whatever India earned in Olympics may be lesser in comparison with the world, but enough has happened to boost the confidence and belief of Indians.

The Prime Minister said, today, it is not that the youth is just watching sports, they are also looking at possibilities of getting associated with it. He said, now sports has begun to be discussed in every family.

Stressing on the need to accord permanence to this momentum, the Prime Minister said, at home or elsewhere, in villages or cities, the playgrounds must be full of activities. He asserted that it is only through collective endeavour of all that India can attain glorious heights in Sports.

In view of COVID-19, the Prime Minister reminded people about the mantra of 'Dawai Bhi, Kadai Bhi' and urged them to vaccinate and take precautions. He said, more than 62 crore vaccine doses have been administered in the country, but still people have to be careful and vigilant. (Source:india.gov.in)
