Andaman local goat

Andaman Local Goat (ALG) is medium to short stature with colour combination of black, brown and white mainly distributed in the Andaman group of islands. These goats were imported from Bengal and adjacent area in different phases of habitation and rehabilitation by the Britishers. Over the years, they have adapted in the tropical humid climate of Island and are now popularly known as Andaman Local Goat. They are usually reared by the islanders under extensive/semi intensive system. There is no specialized traits or characteristics of this goat, however, in general mostly they are black in colour and admixture of brown with white are also found preferred for its excellent chevon quality. Black colour is mostly preferred by the people for religious functions. The colour of the muzzle is grey to light black. Ears are flat and leaf-like, medium-sized and drooping. Both sexes have small horns, curved upward and backward. Tail is medium in length and curved upward. The body weight at 12 months of age varies from 14-19 kg. It is a meat type goat, however milk yield per day varies from 380 to 750 ml. Lactation length is short and usually ranges from 45-90 days. Average kidding rate is 1.54 and the twinning percentage is more than 60 %. These goats are mainly distributed in the Andaman group of islands and out of the total population almost 80% is available in the North, Middle and South Andaman districts.

Benefit: This breed is highly suitable and adaptable to the islands climatic conditions.

France to help India in advanced military technologies

New Delhi, Nov. 7

France has emphasized partnership with India as a major pillar of its Indo Pacific strategy. It has stressed upon its continuing commitment to the Indo Pacific region as a resident power. This was highlighted during National Security Advisor, Shri Ajit Doval's visit to Paris for the annual India-France Strategic Dialogue. During the visit, Shri Doval met French Defence Minister, Ms. Florence Parly.

The Indian Embassy in Paris tweeted that both leaders discussed ways to expand bilateral and regional cooperation, deal with new threats and support India's defence industrialisation and self-reliance. The National Security Advisor also met French Foreign Minister Jean-Yves Le Drian.

According to an official statement, India and France agreed to strengthen bilateral defence and security partnership. This will be done through enhanced intelligence and information sharing, operational cooperation, bolstering mutual capabilities and expanding bilateral exercises. New initiatives in maritime, space and cyber domains will also be pursued. France reiterated its commitment to fully support Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi's vision of Atmanirbhar Bharat and defence industrialisation, joint research and technology development in India. Both the countries also agreed that emerging trends in global affairs reinforce the need for closer partnership between the two countries, including in the UN Security Council and other UN forums. Building on the successful India-France initiative on International Solar Alliance, the two sides also stressed the need to accelerate cooperation in clean energy, including civil nuclear energy and green hydrogen. ## T20 World Cup: New Zealand beat Afghanistan by eight wickets; Qualify for semis

Abu Dhabi, Nov. 7

New Zealand booked their spot in the semifinals after registering an 8-wicket win over Afghanistan in their last group match of the T20 World Cup tournament at the Sheikh Zayed Stadium in Abu Dhabi. Chasing a total of 125 runs, New Zealand lost both the openers in the first 10 overs but an unbeaten 68-run partnership between skipper Kane Williamson (40) and Devon Conway 38 guided New Zealand to victory and semi-final qualification. With this result, India and Afghanistan are both out of the race for the final four. However, the Virat Kohli-led side has one more game left in the tournament against Namibia on Monday. The result of the India-Namibia game will make no change in India's fate in the ongoing tournament. This is also the first time since 2012 that India failed to make it to the semi-finals of any ICC event.

difficulties in leading a normal life during her childhood. But, even at a very young age, she decided to work in order to earn money for the family.

On successful completion of her basic and advanced training in manufacturing of coconut shell handicrafts under the aegis of the Directorate of Industries & A&NI KVIB, she was linked with PMEGP scheme of KVIC for financial assistance and was sanctioned a loan. With the fund received through PMEGP scheme, Rajkumari has started her manufacturing unit in the line of manufacturing of coconut shell handicrafts and is supplying the finished products of her unit to different shops in the market. She is also displaying her products during Sunday Market held regularly at Tushnabad for sale. She now feels very happy for having fulfilled her dream of becoming a successful entrepreneur. Her story is that of a determined and hard working mother of a daughter who is striving to give her quality education which she missed in her childhood. (Source: ANIKVIB)

AYURVEDA DAY 2021 'Ayurveda for Poshan'

AMLA SQUASH

Ingredients		Quantity
Amla (Indian gooseberry) pulp	-	1 kg
Candy sugar (Mishri )	-	2 kg
Rock salt	-	10 gm
Roasted cumin seed powder	-	10 gm
Black pepper powder	-	5 gm
Black salt	-	5 gm
Water	-	1 litre

Servings: 3 litres

3 times water to be added for serving, may adjust the quantity of water as per the required taste.

Method of preparation

Boil amla and de-seed. Keep it aside until cools and make pulp by grinding. In a large vessel, take sugar, and add equal quantity of water, heat it so that sugar dissolves completely. Sugar syrup should be made double or 2.5 times quantity of Alma Pulp. Take the pulp in a big vessel, slowly add sugar syrup and mix it well. When the pulp and syrup are properly mixed, take a little bit mixture in a small bowl to mix spices. Add roasted jeera powder, rock salt, black pepper and black Salt. Mix contents of both bowls well and keep it in glass jar. If you put in fridge than no need of preservatives otherwise add 0.75 gm Potassium metabisulfite (K.M.S.)/per kg.

Health benefits

Amla is an excellent source of Vitamin C, hence it helps to boost immunity, metabolism and prevents infections, including cold and cough. This cooling drink is useful in acid peptic disorders, constipation, anemia and eye strain.
