

India at a key inflexion point of not just 'Heal in India' through its vibrant medical tourism, but also 'Heal by India': Union Health & Family Welfare Minister

New Delhi, June 3 (PIB)

"For a Samruddh Bharat, we need a Swasthya Bharat and for a Swasthya Bharat, we need Swasthya Nagrik. Health has been positioned at the centre-stage by Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi ji, and several health initiatives are being taken up by the Union Government. India is also ready for a leading global to provide healthcare services through the 'Health in India' and 'Heal by India' initiatives". This was stated by Dr. M a n s u k h Mandaviya, Union Minister of Health & Family Welfare today as he interacted with officials of regional Press Information Bureau (PIB), Doordarshan (DD), All India Radio (AIR) and various regional health journalists. The online session was attended by more than 150 officers and regional health journalists from all states.

At the outset, Union Health Minister thanked the media for their crucial role during the COVID Pandemic. He said that in such testing times, media persons rose to the occasion in fighting the infodemic by providing factual information, ward off myths and fears, and address the dual issues of vaccine eagerness and vaccine hesitancy. Signifying the proactive role played by the officials of PIB, DD News, AIR News and media personnel during the COVID crisis, he said that it is not just the government's efforts but 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas, Sabka Vishwas and Sabka Prayaas' that has made us execute one of the largest and most successful vaccination programmes in the world. He expressed deep condolences for the journalists who lost their lives during this period.

He further emphasized, "Democracy's fourth pillar-Media- has set a high standard in demonstrating their potential during the pandemic." He urged to spread the message that for a Samruddh Bharat, we need a Swasthya Bharat and for a Swasthya Bharat, we need Swasthya Nagrik. "We have started the second phase of Har Ghar Dastak for encouraging the masses towards full vaccination coverage. I seek your support in carrying the message of full COVID vaccination to the masses", he said. Union Health Minister urged media to support the ongoing efforts of TB elimination, cataract, telemedicine and eSanjeevani and various other initiatives of the Ministry at the regional level and motivate citizens to come forward in large numbers and become a part of these

A&N Islands gaining huge popularity amongst tourists Top attractions of Andamans is its beaches & water sports activities, reveal visiting tourists

Maharashtra sends maximum number of tourists - 24 percent

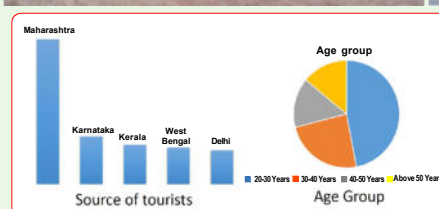

Over 30% tourists came to know about A&N Islands through social media & tourism websites

Port Blair, June 3

Undoubtedly, the A&N Islands have become one of the most sought after tourist destinations for the national & international tourists. The Islands offer awe inspiring history of the colonial era, unique pristine beaches, exciting water sports activities, jungle walks, and so many other attractions. The tourists visiting the Andaman Nicobar Islands feel that the top attraction of Andamans is its beaches followed by water sports activities.

During a recent survey conducted by the Tourism Department on 1000 tourists at different locations like National Memorial Cellular Jail, Radhanagar Beach, and also at Shaheed Dweep amongst the tourists, it came to light that over 50% of tourists visiting the Isles are couples, majority of them being young couples in the age group 20-30 years and 14% of them had come to these Islands on a honeymoon trip. The survey also revealed that the number of LTC travelers consists only 19% of the total tourists visiting these Islands.

Interestingly, Maharashtra sends maximum number of tourists- 24% of the total, followed by the southern states and Delhi while the share of North and Central India is quite small. Especially the share of Hindi belt states is quite small compared to their large population base. It was also learnt that around 50% of tourists arrange their trip through tour operators. However, majority of tourists from Hindi belt including Delhi prefer self arrangements (66%).

During the survey, majority of tourists expressed happiness with their experience in the Islands and they said they would recommend visiting A&N Islands to their friends and relatives.

Over 30% tourists said they came to know about A&N Islands through social media, tourism websites and another 40% said they were guided about this beautiful tourist destination through travel agents, a press release from Directorate of IP&T said.

Sports Minister launches nationwide programmes on World Bicycle Day

New Delhi, June 3

Youth Affairs and Sports Minister, Shri Anurag Singh Thakur launched the nationwide Fit India Freedom Rider Cycle Rally at Major Dhyan Chand Stadium in New Delhi on World Bicycle Day this morning.

Referring to the concept of Lifestyle for Environment (LIFE), Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi has shared a picture of Mahatma Gandhi riding a bicycle. He said, it is World Bicycle Day today and who better than Mahatma Gandhi to take inspiration from to lead a sustainable and healthy lifestyle.

On the occasion, Shri Thakur along with Union Ministers, Shri Mansukh Mandaviya and Shri Kiren Rijiju as well as seven hundred fifty Young Cyclists pedaled seven and a half-kilometre distance.

As India is celebrating Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports has taken a unique step to organise this bicycle rally. Speaking on the occasion, Shri Thakur urged people to use bicycles to promote the FIT India campaign.

The cycle rallies were conducted by Nehru Yuva Kendra Sangathan at 75 iconic places across the country during which 75 participants covered the distance of seven and a half-kilometre.

More than nine lakh sixty-eight thousand kilometres distance was covered by one lakh twenty-nine thousand young cyclists through the Bicycle Rallies in a single day today.

The aim of this programme is to motivate people to take up and adopt cycling in their daily lives for physical fitness activities. (Source: india.gov.in)
