India's economy continues to remain resilient despite hostile & uncertain international environment: RBI Governor

New Delhi, Jan. 28

RBI Governor, Shri Shaktikanta Das on Friday said that despite a hostile and uncertain international environment, India's economy continues to remain resilient, drawing strength from its macroeconomic fundamentals. Addressing the 22nd Fixed Income Money Market and Derivatives Association-FIMMDA and Primary Dealers Association of India - PDAI Annual Conference in Dubai, Shri Das said India's financial system remains robust and stable with bank credit growing in double digits. Admitting that inflation has remained elevated, the RBI Governor however added that there has been a welcome softening during November and December 2022. Talking about the Current Account Deficit, Shri Das said it is eminently manageable, adding that the average CAD to GDP ratio stood at 3.3 percent during the first half of FY23. The RBI Governor said net FDI flows remain strong and foreign portfolio flows have resumed since July 2022. He informed that the size of forex reserves is comfortable while the country's external debt ratios are low by international standards. Shri Das added that liquidity in the Government Securities and the overnight money markets have grown. On rupee depreciation, Shri Das

Devotion and dedication to service - journey of an award winning Doctor Most cherished and golden phase of my life was serving the tribal populace: Padma Shri Awardee Dr. R C Kar

Port Blair, Jan. 28

As Mahatma Gandhi puts it "The greatness of humanity is not in being human, but in being humane." Meet retired physician, Dr Ratan Chandra Kar, whose dedicated services to the tribal populace of A&N Islands, the Jarawa tribe in particular has won him the Padma Shri Award for the year 2023, the fourth highest civilian award in the Republic of India.

Responding to the call of the Health Department during the outbreak of measles in 1999 (Sept-Oct), Dr Kar said, he along with mobile medical team provided medical intervention to the Jarawa tribe. Similarly, in the year 2000, the outbreak of mumps was followed by malaria in 2001 and then conjunctivitis in 2008. Dr Kar and team tackled all of these health issues and provided in situ medical coverage to the Jarawa tribe.

In a telephonic interview with DT, an elated Dr Kar said, "This Award is extremely special for me and I feel very happy and proud to have been conferred with this prestigious Award." Dr Kar joined the Health Services of A&N Administration on Sept. 24, 1988. From 1989 to 1993, he provided medical coverage to the Great Andamanese Tribe in their settlement in Strait Island, once a week. He was then the Medical Officer i/c of PHC

Long Island. The setting up of Onge Ward in R.K. Pur PHC, No. 16 in Little Andaman was a successful project, he said. Having served for a long duration among the tribal population, he grew accustomed to their life style,

Recalling his first meeting with the tribe, Dr Kar said, initially they were hostile and approaching them wasn't that easy. The Padma Shri Awardee said, "In order to conquer the hearts of the Jarawa tribe, I needed to learn their language". He spent nearly six months learning the language through

Series of progs. organized by Social Welfare Deptt. to mark National Girl Child Day celebration

Port Blair, Jan. 28

National Girl Child Day entails a huge significance in promoting and creating awareness on the rights of girls. This day is celebrated to raise awareness in the society about the gender based discrimination. The Department of Social Welfare is committed towards the welfare of girl child and in order to promote awareness about rights of girl children, a series of programmes were organized from Jan. 18 to 24 at Balika Niketan, Attam Pahad. Resource persons from Health Department, AYUSH and Employment Exchange interacted with the children and sensitized them on issues like menstrual hygiene, nutrition, prevention of drug abuse, yoga & healthy living, Child Rights, POCOS Act besides workshop on career counseling & vocational guidance. Health-camp and various indoor-games were also organized for the girls of Balika Niketan in which they enthusiastically participated.

The weeklong celebration culminated on Jan.24 on the occasion of National Girl Child Day with colourful cultural programmes presented by the inmates of Balika Niketan.

The Director (SW), Smti Iti Agarwal who was the chief guest motivated the children to work hard and build up their confidence by following the righteous path and showcase their talent in their respective field of interest. Prizes were also distributed to the winners of various competitions, a press release from Directorate of Social Welfare said.

An initiative under 'Paryavaran Sanrakshan' programme DBRAIT distributes more than 25000 cloth bags free of cost on Republic Day

Port Blair, Jan. 28

As part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, the trainees of Fashion & Apparel Design course under Skill Development Program of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Institute of Technology (DBRAIT) distributed more than 25000 cloth bags on 26th January 2023, which is one of the activity under Paryavaran Sanrakshan programme and green practices carried out by DBRAIT.

The cloth bags were prepared by the trainees of eight Extension Centres located in Port

Blair, Mayabunder, Rangat, Baratang, Ferrargunj, Hutbay, Katchal and Campbell Bay and were distributed through 13 different venues on 74th Republic Day. These cloth bags were distributed among general public, free of cost, throughout A&N Islands and respective PRI members/ Govt. Officials were also invited for the distribution programme. The objective of distributing these bags is to encourage the use of Cloth Bags and discard

Transport Deptt. grants relief to vehicle owners for exemption of payment of late fee on delayed fitness on certain conditions

Vehicle owners asked to get their vehicle inspected for fitness prior to its expiry

Port Blair, Jan. 28

In compliance with the advisory of Ministry of Road Transport & Highways, Transport Department of the UT of A&N Islands has treated the validity of all the vehicle related documents which had expired since 01st February, 2020 or by 31st October, 2021 to be valid till 31st October, 2021. It has also come to the notice of the Department that many vehicle owners have not renewed the fitness of vehicles for which the fitness expired prior to 1.2.2020, owing to the reason that the owners have still not recovered from financial loss incurred due to corona pandemic. On assessing and considering difficulties/constraints being faced by the vehicle owners, the Transport Department has decided to grant further relief to vehicle owners for exemption of payment of late fee on delayed fitness under Rule 37 of ANIMVR, 2006 on the following criteria: Those applicants/ vehicle owners who submitted their applications for fine exemption, their late fine on delayed fitness has been exempted from the date of submission of their applications. However,

Transport Department has further advised all the vehicle owners to get their vehicle inspected for fitness prior to its expiry. Any dereliction from avoiding the fitness of vehicle will be dealt strictly under the provisions of law in force for such matter, a press release from Directorate of Transport said.

Due to squally weather associated with low pressure area over South East Bay of Bengal and adjoining East Equatorial Indian Ocean, wind speed reaching 40-50 kmph is likely to prevail along and off Andaman and Nicobar Islands. Fishermen have been advised not to venture into the sea till Jan. 30, 2023. For further enquiries/information, one may contact helpline of State Emergency Operation Centre at Helpline No. 1070 & District Emergency Operation Centre at Helpline No. 1077. For any emergency/assistance at sea, call Coast Guard SAR Agency at Toll Free number 1554, a press release from Directorate of Disaster Management said.

Stating that India is widely seen as a bright spot in an otherwise gloomy world, the RBI Governor said Indian financial markets have been driven by two key objectives - stability and development, adding that crisis management has been a key component in this journey. Shri Das called upon stakeholders like Fixed Income Money Market and Derivatives Association of India - FIMMDA and Primary Dealers Association of India - PDAI to work together with the apex bank as market participants prepare themselves to manage the changes and the risks associated with globally integrated markets.
