Chief Secretary inaugurates newly constructed 8 Classrooms for VKZPV at Ferrargunj under RURBAN Mission by ZPSA

Inspired by the philosophies of Swami Vivekananda, VKZPV is providing quality education, leaving indelible mark in the lives of students: CS

Staff Correspondent
Port Blair, Sept. 7

The newly constructed 8 classrooms for Vivekananda Kendra Zilla Parishad Vidyalaya at Ferrargunj under RURBAN Mission by Zilla Parishad South Andaman was formally inaugurated today by the Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS as the chief guest by unveiling the plaque in the presence of Adhyaksh, ZPSA, Shri Sanjay Kumar Singh, Chief Executive Officer, ZPSA, Ms Smitha R, IAS, Secretary (RD/PRIs/ULBs), A&N Administration, Ms Veditha Reddy, IAS, Up Adhyaksh, ZPSA, Shri Bhoominathan, ZP Member, Ferrargunj, Shri Abdul Bashir, ZP Member C h o u d a r i Constituency, Smti Pramila Kumari, Pradhan, Ferrargunj, Shri Sunil Kumar, PRI members, Officers from various Departments, students and general public of the area.

Addressing the gathering, the Chief Secretary remarked that Vivekananda Kendra Vidyalaya reminds him of his school days where he began his early education at Vivekananda Sishu Mandir. He said, one of the biggest pros of studying at Vivekananda Kendra Vidyalaya is the quality of education provided by the institute functioning under Vivekananda Kendra based on the principles of quality education and character building. He congratulated the Students, Teachers, Principal, Zilla Parishad Members and faculty of VKZPV as they begin this new chapter with the inauguration of these eight classrooms which will provide quality education to children from LKG to Class V. He lauded the Zilla Parishad for its tie up with VKV Kanyakumari to provide valuable education to students of A&N Islands whilst ensuring their overall development. He opined that, with the presence of VKZPVs in areas like Port Mout, Ferrargunj and Shorepoint, one can see different models of education which are available for students and not just Govt. Schools alone. This, he said, in a way will help foster the spirit of competitiveness in the field of education, thereby resulting in imparting quality education. He remarked that VKZPV Port Mout is one such example, where people are eager to get their child admitted to the school, due to the reputation and quality of education it provides.

The VKVs are guided by the values of Vivekananda Kendra, inspired by the general philosophies of Swami Vivekananda, he said,

Mass causality evacuation exercise conducted by Andaman Nicobar Command at Port Blair

Port Blair, Sept. 7

Andaman and Nicobar Command conducted a comprehensive mock drill on Sept. 4, to assess emergency services' readiness for an Air Crash Accident including Mass Casualty Evacuation at the Veer Savarkar International Airport. Various stakeholders joined to holistically exercise collective response capabilities. Coordinated by INS Utkrosh, this exercise involved medical units of the Andaman and Nicobar Command, relevant Government Agencies (which included Health Services, Disaster Management, GB Pant Hospital, Pillar Hospital, Civil Police, CISF, Airport Authority of India), and Airline Operators.

The mock drill started with a fictitious aircraft crash. INS Utkrosh's Safety Services team swiftly managed the simulated onboard fire, initiating casualty evacuation and essential crash & salvage operations.

Meanwhile, INS Utkrosh's Medical Department triaged injured passengers, providing initial First Aid and resuscitation to revive survivors. A total of 13 ambulances (06 from Armed Forces & 08 from civil sources), quickly arrived at the simulated crash site. Hospitals (GB Pant, INHS Dhanvantari & Pillar) re-triaged 32 simulated casualties, set up Crisis Expansion Wards, and assembled surgical teams. Operation Theatres and Disaster Management Stores' readiness was assessed.

Independent observers from Andaman and Nicobar Command and Civil Administration supervised the drill, showcasing synergy among the agencies. It provided insights into HADR mechanisms, highlighting the commitment to safety in Andaman and Nicobar Islands, a press release from HQ ANC said.
