PM addresses contingent of Indian athletes who participated in the Asian Games

The entire country is overjoyed because of the outstanding performance of our athletes in the Asian Games: PM

New Delhi, Oct. 10 (PIB)

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi addressed the contingent of Indian athletes who participated in the Asian Games 2022 at Major Dhyani Chand Stadium in New Delhi today. He also interacted with the athletes. India won 107 medals including 28 Gold medals in the Asian Games 2022 making this the best performance in terms of the total number of medals won in the continental multi-sport event.

Addressing the contingent, the Prime Minister welcomed them on behalf of every citizen and congratulated them for their success. It is a pleasant coincidence, the Prime Minister recalled, that the inaugural edition of the Asian Games took place in this very stadium in 1951. The Prime Minister underlined that the courage and determination shown by the athletes have taken every nook and corner of the nation into a celebratory mood. Noting the labour put behind to achieve the target of 100 plus medals, the Prime Minister emphasized that the entire nation is experiencing a feeling of pride. He also congratulated the coaches and trainers and praised the physios and officials for their contributions. The Prime Minister bowed before the parents of all athletes and highlighted the contributions and sacrifices made by the families. "From the training ground to the podium, the journey is impossible without the support of the parents", the Prime Minister said.

The Prime Minister said "You have created history. Figures of this Asian Games are witness to India's success. This is the best performance of India in the Asian Games to date. It is a matter of personal satisfaction

A&N Police issues advisory on Telegram Hijacking

Port Blair, Oct. 10

Instant Messaging (IM) Apps have become popular medium of communication among individuals. Fraudsters have targeted the app users and have managed to devise ways and means to take over or hijack their IM accounts to commit cyber offences by impersonating them. Users need to be aware and alert about these frauds with necessary safety measures against the same.

In this regard, Andaman and Nicobar Police has issued the following advisory to safeguard the citizens against Telegram Hijacking:

- > Make your phone number private.
- > Never share verification codes with anyone, even if you know them.

> Beware of unusual requests received over Telegram or other messaging apps.

> Turn off notification preview for SMS. Anyone who can see the verification code on your phone can easily hijack

Fitness and laughter prog. organised by Directorate of Social Welfare at Jogger's Park

Port Blair, Oct. 10
The Directorate of Social Welfare organized an awareness-cum-fitness programme as part of the Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan at Jogger's Park on Oct.8. The fitness programme is aimed at creating drug awareness and encouraging healthy lifestyle among the participants. The event witnessed an overwhelming response with over 150 participants, including NCC cadets and the general public. The fitness session was conducted by Shihan M.S. Murugan, an esteemed International Laughter Yoga Ambassador. Participants were guided through various exercise routines and fitness activities geared towards enhancing physical and mental wellbeing.

Dr. Nitin Shakya, Director, Social Welfare also joined the fitness programme and sensitised the participants about the benefits of exercises and meditation such as jogging, cycling or dancing, to release endorphins and improve mood. He said, practicing meditation or yoga to reduce stress and increase self-awareness, also helps towards addiction recovery to address cravings adding that participating in group fitness classes or sports activities will also foster a sense of community and support.

Meanwhile, Drug Awareness-cum-Fitness programme will be conducted on 15th October at Joggers Park from morning 6 am till 7.30 am for general public. This session will provide a platform for individuals to not only improve their physical fitness, but also to gain awareness about the impact of substance abuse and make positive choices for a healthier lifestyle, a press release from Directorate of Social Welfare said.

PM addresses contingent of Indian athletes who participated in the Asian Games... (Contd. from page 1)

that we are moving in the right direction." He recalled the doubts at the time of pursuit of Corona vaccine and said that when we succeeded in saving lives and helping 250 countries, the same feeling of moving in the right direction was experienced.

Noting the highest-ever medal tally, the Prime Minister mentioned the highest-ever medals in shooting, archery, squash, rowing, female boxing and the first Gold Medal in Women's and Men's cricket events, squash mixed doubles. He also underlined the significance of gaining medals in few events after a long time for example women's shot put (72 years), 4x4 100 meters (61 years), equestrian (41 years) and male badminton (40 years). "A wait of so many decades got over because of your efforts", the Prime Minister said. The Prime Minister noted expanding canvas as India won medals in almost all games in which it participated. At least 20 events were there where India never had a podium finish. "You not just opened an account but blazed a trail that will inspire a generation of youth. It will go beyond the Asian Games and will give new confidence in our march towards the Olympics.", he added. The Prime Minister expressed great pride in the contributions made by the women athletes and said that it highlights the capabilities of India's daughters. He informed that out of all the medals won, more than half were bagged by female athletes and it was the women's cricket team that began the string of successes. He mentioned that most medals were won by women in Boxing. He also applauded the women's athletics team for their impressive performances and said, "The daughters of India were not ready to settle for anything less than no. 1 in the track and field events", the Prime Minister said, "This is the spirit and power of new India." The Prime Minister underlined that the new India never stops quitting until the final whistle blows and the winners are decided. "The new India attempts to give its best every time", he said.

The Prime Minister said India never lacked talent and athletes did perform well in the past, however, due to many challenges, we lagged behind in terms of medals. He elaborated on the modernization and transformative efforts undertaken after 2014. He said that it is India's effort to provide the athletes with the best training facilities, to provide maximum national and international exposure to athletes, ensure transparency in selection and provide maximum opportunity to the talent from the rural areas. He informed that the sports budget has been enhanced three-fold as compared to 9 years ago. "Our TOPS and Khelo India schemes have proved game changer", said the Prime Minister recalling how Khelo Gujarat changed the sporting culture of the State. He said about 125 athletes of the Asiad contingent are a find of Khelo India campaign, of which more than 40 have won medals. "Success of so many Khelo India athletes shows the right direction of the campaign", he said. He informed that more than 3000 athletes are being trained under Khelo India. These players are getting scholarships of more than 6 lakh rupees each per annum. "Under this scheme, assistance worth about Rs 2.5 thousand crores has now been given to the athletes. I assure you that lack of money will never be a hindrance to your efforts. The Government is going to spend Rs 3 thousand crore more for you and the sports in the next five years. Today, modern sports infrastructure is being built just for you in every corner of the country", Shri Modi added.

The Prime Minister expressed happiness about the presence of younger athletes among the medal winners. "This is the sign of a sporting nation. These new young winners will perform brilliantly for the country for a long time. The new thinking of young India is no longer satisfied with just good performance, rather it wants medals and wins" he said.

"The country has great confidence in all players", the Prime Minister underlined as he noted the slogan of '100 Paar' that was chosen for this year's Asian Games. Shri Modi expressed confidence that this record will go much further in the next edition. Underlining that the Paris Olympics is right around the corner, the Prime Minister urged them to prepare diligently. He also consoled all those who did not achieve success this time and suggested they learn from their mistakes and make new efforts. Shri Modi extended his best wishes to all the players of the Para Asian Games which are set to begin from 22nd October. Union Minister for Youth and Sports Affairs, Shri Anurag Singh Thakur was present on the occasion among others.
