Chief Secretary inaugurates 'Beti Badhai Sandesh' - an initiative of District Administration through District Health Society, SA for new born baby girls

Hands over baby kits, awareness pamphlets & plant pots to 16 mothers of new born baby girls

Port Blair, Dec. 22

Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS, Chief Secretary, A & N Administration inaugurated the 'Beti Badhai Sandesh', an initiative of District Administration through District Health Society, SA for new born baby girls during a function held at G.B. Pant Hospital today. The Chief Secretary provided baby kits, awareness pamphlets and plant pots to 16 mothers of the new born baby girls in the presence of Dr. Satyendra Singh Dursawat, IAS, Secretary (Health), Ms. Veditha Reddy, IAS, Deputy Commissioner (SA), Shri Dilkhush Meena, IAS, ADM (SA), Shri Vinayak Chamadia, SDM (SA), Shri Anand Vardhan Mishra, AC(S), Dr. Suja Antony, Director (Health) and other officials of DHS, ANIIMS & National Health Mission.

The Chief Secretary appreciated the initiative and congratulated mothers of new born babies and requested them to ensure their good health and to provide quality education to them.

The DC (SA)/Chairperson, District Health Society, South Andaman speaking to the media stated that the 'Beti Badhai Sandesh' initiative has been taken up by the District Health Society, South Andaman under National Health Mission with the aim to create a positive and joyous atmosphere around the arrival of every girl child. This initiative is to reaffirm the belief that each girl is a source of strength, resilience and has limitless potential to provide support to the family and in serving the Nation as a whole. Further, she added that it's not just an initiative, it's a movement towards a more inclusive and equal society. By celebrating the birth of every girl child, we are sowing the seeds for a future, where gender does not limit one's potential. The DC (SA) appealed to the public that such celebration may also be organized at the community level, so that the parents of girl child may get encouraged to provide equal opportunity to their daughter in every respect, a press release from DC (SA) said.

Port Blair, Dec.22

The 13th day of Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra (VBSY) campaign unfolded successfully in the urban landscape, focusing on Ward No. 23 and Ward No. 24. The specially equipped IEC Van dedicated to the yatra received an enthusiastic reception as it moved through these Wards, welcomed warmly by Smti D. Radhika, the Ward Councilor and the residents. Ward No. 23 saw a diverse agenda for the day, starting with a compelling video presentation. This was followed by a collective recitation of the Viksit Bharat Pledge, engaging both public attendees and yatra officials. Administered by the Ward Councilor, the Sankalp Pledge took the center stage. In her address, the Ward Councilor highlighted the Yatra's significance, encouraging active participation to gain its benefits. A significant aspect of the day's events was the 'Meri Kahani Meri Zubani' segment, where beneficiaries shared personal success stories, showcasing how Government flagship schemes had positively transformed their lives.

In the evening, the van received a warm reception from Ward Councillor, Smti U. Kavitha and the local residents at Ward No.

24. Engaging videos showcasing the essence of Viksit Bharat took center stage, highlighting the importance of the Sankalp Pledge. The 'Meri Kahani Meri Zubani' segment continued, featuring compelling stories from beneficiaries, urging others to grip these transformative schemes for their own betterment. Knowledge-sharing sessions, led by representatives from different Departments, offered comprehensive insights into key schemes, inspiring citizens to actively engage and benefit from these initiatives. Recognizing the contributions, exceptional workers from both Wards were honored for their remarkable support of the 'Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra' campaign.

As the VBSY program concluded its tour of all 24 Wards in the urban area today, the closing session included expressions of gratitude by the Van Nodal Officer to all Departments that contributed to the yatra. The staff members of PBMC across various sections, whose efforts were integral to the success of the event, were also acknowledged for their dedicated contributions, a press release from PBMC said.

Council, in collaboration with dedicated 3R (Reduce, Reuse, Recycle) team. This committed group showcased their artistic ingenuity by converting waste materials into appealing creations, effectively shifting the landscape from garbage laden to verdant greenery and tranquil ponds.

Municipal Council's pivotal role in this makeover has not only tackled waste management challenges but also elevated the locale's visual allure, raising a sustainable and aesthetically pleasing environment. Committed to its journey towards becoming a zero-waste city, the Council has reimagined this area as a shelter for relaxation. The cleanup process involved the disposal of over 20 truckloads of waste, rejuvenating the space. This transformed area, now adorned with recycled wooden planks, benches, flower pots and revamped bus stands, stands as a testament to the potential of waste repurposing and community driven initiatives. The evolution from Garbage Vulnerable Points to a Relax Point is a shining example of sustainable urban transformation, showcasing a pleasant blend of nature and innovative solutions, a press release from Secretary, Municipal Council said.
