'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav'- inspiring performances of classical dance & vocal music

Two-day 'Shruti Amrut' festival organized by Ministry of Culture in association with SPIC MACAY & A&N Administration culminates

Vibrant & energetic Bharatnatyam dance by Ms Alarmel Valli and spellbinding rendition by Dr. Ashwini Bhide-Deshpande captivate huge gathering at DBRAIT Auditorium

Staff Reporter

Port Blair, Mar 5

The two-day 'Shruti Amrut' festival concluded at DBRAIT Auditorium today with lively presentations by the noted Bharatnatyam exponent, Ms Alarmel Valli and renowned vocalist Dr. Ashwini Bhide-Deshpande which captivated the packed to capacity auditorium till the end of the programme. The 'Shruti Amrut' festival was organized by the Ministry of Culture, GoI, in collaboration with SPIC MACAY & Deptt. of Art & Culture, A&N Administration. The Adhyaksha Zilla Parishad, South Andaman, Smt. Pramila Kumari was the chief guest of today's programme. The Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS, also graced the occasion. The Commissioner-cum-Secretary, Smti Nandini Paliwal, IAS, and SPIC MACAY Chairperson, Smti Rashmi Malik, senior officers of A&N Administration, general public and a large gathering of students witnessed the programme.

Bharatnatyam exponent Ms Alarmel Valli captivated the audience through her skilful dance performance -Bharatnatyam. She started her performance with 'Scent of Earth'- a tribute to Prakriti-celebrating nature in many moods, followed by Alarulu Kuriyagan, a composition of 15th Century depicting Goddess Alamelu Manga as a celestial dancer. Ms Alarmel Valli was accompanied by Shri CK Vasudevan on Nattuvangam, Vocal by Ms Vasudha Ravi, Ms KP Nandini on Violin, Shri Shaktivel Muruganadan on Mridangam and lighting by Shri Murugan during her performance. The presentation of the dance form on Unnuneer Vikinan - an ancient Tamil Sangam poem which captured a moment of delicate transition between childhood & adolescence was the highlight of her presentation, dedicated to students present in good number in the auditorium. In her brief address before concluding her performance with 'Nrittalahari', Ms Alarmel Valli showered all praise for SPIC MACAY and A&N Administration for meticulously arranging the function. She also acknowledged the warmth she received during her stay here and the thoughtful & helping nature of the people of the Isles. The renowned Indian classical vocalist, Vidushi Ashwini Bhide-Deshpande captivated the audience through her performance during the second part of today's programme. Dr Ashwini Bhide-Deshpande performed Raag Sri, Basant and Bandish of Thumhri & Tarana and some Holi songs based on Raag Basant etc. with her tanpura. She was accompanied by Shri Dnyaneshwar Sonawane on Harmonium and Shri Vinod Lele on Tabla. Her performance on Radha Krishna ki Holi- 'Sakal Brij Dhoom Machi Hai', drew loud applause from the audience.

In her brief address, Dr Ashwini thanked SPIC MACAY and A&N Administration for providing her an opportunity to perform for the audience of Andaman and Nicobar

Sale of gold jewellery hallmarked without six-digit code to be banned from next month

New Delhi, March 5

Government has decided to ban the sale of gold jewellery and gold artefacts hallmarked without a six-digit code from next month. The Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution in a statement said that the decision has been taken to ensure quality culture in micro sale units. The decision was taken after a review meeting of the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS), chaired by the union Commerce and Industry Minister, Shri Piyush Goyal, held on 3rd March 2023.

The Ministry informed that in an effort to promote quality culture in micro scale units, BIS is providing an 80 per cent concession on the certification/minimum marking fee across various product certification schemes of BIS. It said additionally, units located in the North-East will continue to receive an extra 10 per cent concession.

The Union Minister stated that the Government is committed to ensuring that all products in India meet the highest quality and safety standards. He said, these measures shall promote micro scale units, enhance the testing infrastructure, and develop a culture of quality consciousness among citizens. (Source: india.gov.in)
