Hon'ble Lt. Governor, A&N Islands congratulates the PRIs and officials of GP Laxminagar for this great achievement

Port Blair, April 17

It is a proud moment for the entire UT of Andaman and Nicobar Islands, as Gram Panchayat Laxminagar under Campbell Bay Block in the Nicobar district has secured 2nd Position in the National Panchayat Awards 2023 on the theme 'Self Sufficient Infrastructure in Panchayat', under the category 'Deen Dayal Upadhyay Panchayat Satat Vikas Puraskar' (DDUPSV). The Gram Panchayat has achieved the milestone by competing with other 2.68 lakh Gram Panchayats across the country. Hon'ble President of India, Smti Droupadi Murmu today presented National Panchayat Awards and inaugurated the National Conference on Incentivisation of Panchayats in New Delhi.

Addressing the gathering of Elected Representatives and Officials from all over India, she congratulated all the awardee Gram Panchayats conferred with different awards. She mentioned that this will be a stepping stone in the field of rural development and in the coming years other Gram Panchayats must take example out of it. She said, Mahatma Gandhi stated that the soul of India resides in rural, which means, to see India to be a developed country, first & foremost will be to make our villages developed, which follows the title of 'Gram Uday Se Desh Uday'. 'Mahatma Gandhi had a dream of making an 'Adarsh Gram' and we all must try to fulfill it, she said. The President further gave an example of Samras Gram Yojana that was launched in Gujarat with a motive for developing peace in the village. She also mentioned that the line Departments should work in convergence for the development of the village. She also requested the women to come forward and take active part in the decision making process which will be for the development of the village. She also emphasized that the major issue which is mainly prevailing now a days is of Global warming, and she felt happy that the Gram Panchayats are getting awarded for

Waiting for ship tickets in long queue is foregone- Directorate of Shipping Services introduces online reservation of ship tickets Chief Secretary launches the Directorate's website with e-ticketing facility Online reservation system will offer convenient and hassle free booking options to passengers

The Directorate of Shipping Services under the aegis of Andaman and Nicobar Administration has introduced online reservation of ship tickets for the convenience of the passengers. The Chief Secretary, Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS in the presence of Secretary (Shipping), Shri Kishore Kshirsagar Lakshman, IAS and Director of Shipping Services, Capt. Atul Kumar Singh in a brief function held at his office today, launched the Directorate's website with e-ticketing facility and lauded the Department for this citizen centric initiative.

The online reservation system will offer convenient and hassle free online booking options to the passengers and payments can be made through various options available on the website. The move comes in line with the Government's efforts to digitize various services and make them accessible to the people. The introduction of online reservation system is aimed for benefitting passengers travelling to and from the Islands, who previously had to wait in long queues at the booking counters to get their tickets. Passengers can now book their tickets from the comfort of their home or office without having to visit the booking counters.

The online reservation services can be availed by a onetime registration at the portal https:// dss.andaman.gov.in. The system is user-friendly and easy to navigate, ensuring a seamless booking experience for the passengers. The website alongwith tickets also provides information, including schedule of ships, available routes, fares etc. The online reservation system will also help in reducing waiting time at booking counters, thereby improving overall efficiency of shipping services. It will also enable the Directorate of Shipping Services to gather valuable data that can be used to improve the services further.

The entire project has been undertaken by CRIS (Center for Railway Information Systems) in association with other stakeholders such as NISCI, Bhubaneswar for cloud infrastructure, STQC (Chennai) for Security Audit and BSNL for internet connectivity.
