Growth of every nation is rationally correlated to the health of its populace: Vice President

New Delhi, Aug. 21

Vice President, Shri Jagdeep Dhankhar has said that the growth of every nation is rationally correlated to the health of its populace. He said this while addressing the 48th Convocation of All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) in New Delhi today. Shri Dhankhar said, everything in life can be regained whether it is power, friend, or wealth, but the only thing that cannot ever be regained is the body. He said, therefore, everyone has to take full care of it. The Vice President said, health is wealth and it is the duty of every citizen, Government, and people associated with health to pay attention to it. He said, the scriptures and literature of the country have a treasure of health solutions. Shri Dhankhar said, if the resources which have been there in the country for centuries are not tapped, we will not be doing service to humanity at large. He advised students not to get caught up in competitiveness. The Vice President asked them to go for their aptitude and they will find their own place and will be able to contribute immensely. He said, every time he has come to AIIMS, it has touched him greatly.

Shri Dhankhar said, the kind of commitment and dedication that doctors have in AIIMS is unparalleled.

On the occasion, Shri Dhankhar presented degrees to over two thousand 500 students. He also presented Lifetime Achievement awards to former faculty members.

Health Minister, Dr. Mansukh Mandaviya presided over the convocation ceremony. Minister of State for Health, Prof. S P Singh Baghel, and Director AIIMS, Prof. M Srinivas were present on the occasion. (Source:india.gov.in)

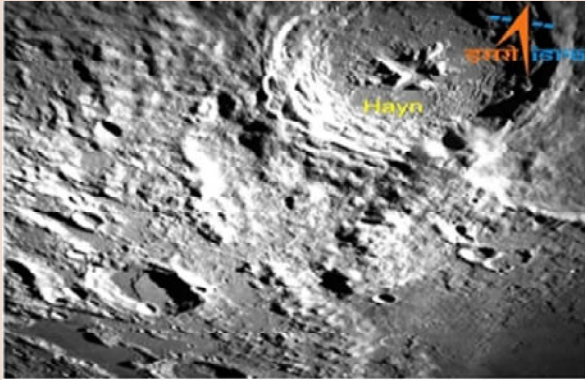

Indian Association of Tour Operators' President, Shri Rajiv Mehra, Executive Committee Member, Shri Zia Siddiqui, and the Chairman, A&N Chapter, Shri Mohammed H. Social Welfare Deptt. organizes awareness progs. on 'ill effects...

awareness programmes for the students and teachers of Navy Children School, Mahatma Gandhi International School, St. Mary's School, GSSS Prothrapur, Garacharma & Rangachang Port Blair on Aug.7, 9, 11, 14, 16 and 18, 2023 respectively. More than 360 students including teachers were sensitized on the 'ill effects of alcohol and drug abuse'. It is important for everyone to stay informed and be educated about the dangers of drugs and their consequences besides understanding the legal and health risks associated with drug use and distribution.

During the programme, the children were educated on how to stay away from drug peddlers and the dangers associated with illegal drug.

- > We have to choose our company wisely and surround ourselves with positive influences and people who share our values and avoid spending time with individuals who are involved in drug-related activities.
- > Be assertive and politely decline any offers or invitations related to drugs.
- > Don't be afraid to say no and stand your ground, if someone pressures you to get involved.
- > Avoid risky areas and stay away from places known for drug activity, such as certain neighborhoods or areas where drug peddling is common.
- > Trust your instincts. If a situation or person makes you uncomfortable trust your gut feelings and remove yourself from that situation.
- > Keep communication open. Maintain open lines of communication with your friends and family. Let them know about your concerns and seek their support if you feel threatened by drug peddlers.
- > Stay Busy. Engage in positive activities that keep you occupied and focused on your goals. Having hobbies, sports, or other interests can help steer you away from negative influences.
- > Be cautious about sharing personal information. Avoid revealing your address, routines, or personal details that could make you vulnerable.
- > Report suspicious activity. If you come across any drug-related activity or suspicious behavior, report it to the appropriate authorities. Your action could help prevent further illegal activities.
- > Know the Law. Familiarize yourself with the laws related to drugs in your area. This knowledge will empower you to make informed decisions and avoid breaking the law.
- > Avoid Peer Pressure. Don't succumb to peer pressure. Your friends might encourage you to try drugs, but remember that your well-being is more important than fitting in.
- > Build Strong Relationships. Surround yourself with supportive and positive relationships. Having a strong network of friends and family can help you stay focused on a healthy lifestyle.
- > Seek help if needed. If you find yourself struggling with the temptation to use drugs or facing peer pressure, don't hesitate to reach out to a trusted adult, counselor, or Helpline No. 112 for guidance and support.

The safety and well-being of oneself is paramount. Making smart choices and avoiding situations that could lead you down the wrong path will help you stay safe from drug peddlers and the dangers associated with illegal drugs.
