their dreams and achieve new heights after getting placements. Expressing her views on the visit, the Secretary stated that the DDU-GKY project is an important initiative that aligns with the Government's vision of Skill India. Witnessing the impact firsthand and witnessing the commitment of the trainees and trainers is truly inspiring, she added.

The DDU-GKY project has successfully placed the trained candidates in various sectors, thereby contributing to the socio-economic growth of the region. About 554 candidates have already been enrolled for training, out of which, 353 have completed training so far and 223 are under placement. The project emphasises on imparting industry-relevant skills, soft skills, and entrepreneurship training for its comprehensive approach to empowering the youth. The Department of Rural Development has vacancy to train nearly 900 more candidates under DDU-GKY project for trades like Assistant Designer-Fashion, Home & Made-ups; Field Technician and Computer Peripherals; Warehouse Picker Packers; General Duty Assistant; Solar Lighting Assembler; and Customer Care Executive-Non-Vice.

The Director (RD/Panchayat) has urged the rural youth of the Islands to come forward and avail the benefits of the DDU-GKY scheme in order to become self-reliant and economically independent, a press release from RD Deptt. said.
