Dr. Srinivas Ramanujan remembered on his birth anniversary

Port Blair, Dec. 22

The Birth Anniversary of Dr. Srinivas Ramanujan, the Great Mathematician of India was celebrated at Govt. Middle School, Wandoor today. As part of the celebration, the life history & achievements made by Dr. Srinivas Ramanujan was highlighted to the students. An Anti-Superstition show was also organized for the students. The program was specially designed to educate the rural student by unraveling the scientific phenomena working behind each magic. Thereafter, with a view to inculcate the spirit of inquisitiveness and to develop scientific temper among the students, the Mobile Science Exhibition bus fitted with science exhibits was placed on display in the school campus. The students alongwith their teachers showed keen interest to know the scientific phenomena behind each exhibit/ model, a press release from Science Center said.

Innovation Club of IGNOU inaugurated

Port Blair, Dec. 22

The 'Innovation Club' of IGNOU was inaugurated by Dr. Alok Chaube, Registrar (Admin), IGNOU, HQ, New Delhi yesterday in the premises of IGNOU, Regional Centre, Port Blair. This is the 25th Innovation Club of IGNOU.

In his address, the chief guest, Dr. Alok Chaube, Registrar (Admin) highlighted the importance of Innovation Clubs and also pressed upon Incubation Centre for effective implementations of the objective of innovation and startups by IGNOU students and alumni. Further, he said that IGNOU itself is an excellent example of innovation. IGNOU was established during the year 1985, when India needed to increase GER in higher education field. Dr. Alok also appreciated the efforts of IGNOU in promoting higher education complimenting the objectives of NEP-2020. He said that some of the key elements of NEP-2020 have already been implemented by IGNOU and it also incorporated in its degree programmes offered to various sections of society. Earlier, Dr. RVR Murthy, Regional Director welcomed the gathering and appraised the working of RC in geographically inaccessible areas like A & N Islands, where IGNOU reaches almost all Islands and significantly to fulfill Higher Education requirements of learners, a press release from IGNOU said.

Rural Development and Panchayati Raj. It says, the rejuvenation of basic infrastructure including improved sanitation facilities and provision of safe drinking water and maintaining overall cleanliness in the Government schools has long been a priority of the Government. The statements says that some of the programmes being implemented in mission-mode like Swachh Bharat Mission- Grameen (SBM-G) and Jal Jeevan Mission (JJM) are going a long way in improving the living standards of the people. It says, the Swachh Bharat Mission (Grameen) has transformed rural India by manifesting into a Jan Andolan for sanitation. The Advisory says that under Phase -II of the Swachh Bharat Mission (Grameen), the focus is on Open Defecation Free (ODF) sustainability and solid and liquid waste management.

Stating that it is also essential that hygiene education is imparted to the children on all aspects of hygiene, the statement says, for this purpose, at least one teacher in each school must be trained in hygiene education who in turn should train the children through interesting activities and community projects that emphasize hygiene behaviour. It says, a chapter on Swachhta has been included in supplementary material at primary level developed by NCERT to inculcate good hygiene practices in the schools. (Source: india.gov.in)
