Assisted Reproductive Technology and Surrogacy Bill strives to provide patients with better medical care and security: Health Minister

New Delhi, Feb.4 (PIB)

"Assisted Reproductive Technology (ART) and Surrogacy Bill strives to provide patients with better medical care and security. Inculcating new techniques and technologies in Assisted Reproductive Technologies (ART) have vastly benefitted patients leading to an increase in awareness for cause and treatment of infertility". This was stated by Dr. Mansukh Mandaviya, Union Minister for Chemicals & Fertilizers and Health & Family Welfare as he virtually addressed the 27th Annual Indian Society of Assisted Reproduction (ISAR) conference, Bhopal in the presence of Shri Mangubhai Patel, Hon'ble Governor of Madhya Pradesh.

Praising the leadership of Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri

Narendra Modi, the Health Minister stated that the health initiatives introduced by the Government for facilitating quality motherhood have paid dividends and resulted in lowering Maternal Mortality Rate (MMR) as well. He affirmed his confidence that with the on-going relentless efforts to imbibe new developments in ART, India will make sanitary pads at Rs 1/.

Dr. Mandaviya reiterated that the Indian Government is committed towards fostering a holistic approach to health and highlighted that traditional medicinal principles in India will further strengthen our endeavour.

The Health Minister lauded the efforts of ISAR on providing a forum for thousands of IVE, ART Specialists, Gynecologists, Embryologists and ART Technologists across the globe to gather, exchange knowledge, technical developments and innovations, in turn benefitting patients as well. He praised their efforts in generating awareness that this issue affects not just women but men as well stating "increased awareness would further strengthen women empowerment in our society".

Transport Deptt. grants relief to vehicle owners for exemption of payment of late fee on delayed fitness on certain conditions

Vehicle owners asked to get their vehicle inspected for fitness prior to its expiry

Port Blair, Feb.4
In compliance with the advisory of Ministry of Road Transport & Highways, Transport Department of the UT of A&N Islands has treated the validity of all the vehicle related documents which had expired since 01st February, 2020 or by 31st October, 2021 to be valid till 31st October, 2021. It has also come to the notice of the Department that many vehicle owners have not renewed the fitness of vehicles for which the fitness expired prior to 1.2.2020, owing to the reason that the owners have still not recovered from financial loss incurred due to corona pandemic.
On assessing and considering difficulties / constraints being faced by the vehicle owners, the Transport Department has decided to grant further relief to vehicle owners for exemption of payment of late fee on delayed fitness under Rule 37 of ANIMVR, 2006 on the following criteria:
a Those applicants/ vehicle owners who submitted their applications for fine exemption, their late fine on delayed fitness has been exempted for the period 01/02/2020 to 31/10/2021. However, the late fine for delay in renewal of fitness/RCR prior to 01-02-2020 and after 31-10-2021 onwards has to be paid for getting their vehicle inspected for fitness certificate.
Transport Department has further advised all the vehicle owners to get their vehicle inspected for fitness prior to its expiry. Any dereliction from avoiding the fitness of vehicle will be dealt strictly under the provisions of law in force for such matter, a press release from Directorate of Transport said.
