ce-President addresses Bharat Startup

and MSMEs Summit in New Delhi

Need to be 'Vocal for Local'; it reflects the essence of 'Swadeshi Andolan': Vice-President

New Delhi, Feb. 16 (PIB)

The Vice-President of India, Shri Jagdeep Dhankhar today drew attention of trade and industry bodies to the "ill-effects of not subscribing to economic nationalism". Terming economic nationalism as "quintessentially fundamental to our economic growth", the Vice-President called for importing only that which is "unavoidably essential", to prevent the drain of India's foreign exchange, loss of employment entrepreneurship.

"That money may be easy for the individual, but it is very painful for the nation," he underscored. "By adding real value, we can contribute greatly to the national economy," the Vice-President further added.

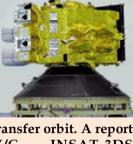

Appealing to corporate leaders to engage with research and development in the country, the Vice-President noted that "world over, research and development is fuelled, financed, promoted and sustained by industries, but we lack it here." Urging corporates to "take a big step in that direction", he said, "While it is good to provide financial assistance to universities outside, it is also important to bestow attention on local universities and academic institutions."
