GREETINGS

HAPPY NEW YEAR -2024

On the auspicious occasion of beginning of New Year-2024, I extend my warmest greetings to the residents of the A & N Islands.

New Year is an occasion to renew our resolutions for a fresh beginning. I am confident that in the coming year, our Islands will continue to advance on the trajectory of peace and continuous development with the collaborative efforts and mutual cooperation of all the residents of A & N Islands. I hope that the Islanders will continue to extend their invaluable support with unwavering determination and commitment, towards realization of the 'Viksit Bharat' vision of our Hon'ble Prime Minister.

On this occasion, I earnestly wish that happiness pervades the lives of all Islanders, and our Islands continue to progress along the path of peace and prosperity.

Happy New Year to all of you!

SHG Mela-a platform to exhibit and sell various handmade products

Around 100 SHGs from Port Blair, Prothrapur, Ferrargunj and Nancowry participating in the five day Mela being held at Marina Park

Port Blair, Dec. 31

The Andaman and Nicobar Islands Rural Livelihood Mission (ANIRLM) attached to the Directorate of Rural Development enhancing the colors and scale of Island Tourism Festival is organizing Self Help Group (SHG) Mela from Dec.28 at Marina Park in synch with Island Tourism Festival and also to celebrate the New Year -2024.

The Secretary (RD/ Panchayat), Smt. Veditha Reddy, IAS visited the Mela today and applauded the initiatives of the SHG members. She visited the stalls and interacted with the SHG members and encouraged the SHG members and the NRLM team to come up with new innovative ideas in the future SHG Melas.

The SHG Mela provided a platform to the SHG members to exhibit and sell various hand made products ranging from Cold Pressed Coconut Oil especially from Nicobar to Home Decors; various Bamboo and Cane Handicrafts; Embroidery Clothes; Traditional foods; Souvenirs; Sweets; Pickles; etc .made by the Self Help Group members.

The participant SHGs were brimming with joy as they set up their stalls. More than 100 Self Help Groups from Port Blair, Prothrapur, Ferrargunj and Nancowry formed under NRLM, ANSCB, NGOs and P BMC participated in the Mela. The participating SHGs had handsome sale for an amount ranging from Rs.2000 to Rs. 6000 per day.

For many SHGs, this SHG Mela in collaboration with Island Tourism Festival was a welcome initiative as it provided platform for them to get marketing support for their products. The Mela will continue till Jan.1 to celebrate the New Year-2024 with the hope to have a prosperous new year for all and usher in more support and open up opportunities for Self Help Group members, a press release from RD Deptt. said.

GREETINGS

As we stand on the threshold of a new year, I extend my heartfelt wishes to all the respectful and peace-loving Islanders. May the dawn of the coming year bring with it a tapestry of hope, prosperity, and joy. My special greetings to all youths and children of these Islands who have achieved many milestones in academics and sports in previous years and I sincerely wish that in coming years they will bring more laurels for our Islands.

My warm wishes also for all uniformed personnel including Police Officers and Jawans who have maintained law and order situation in these Islands very professionally. Special salute to all Officers and Jawans of Andaman and Nicobar Command who are safeguarding our borders and our nation on this New Year. Similarly, I wish a very successful New Year to all Health Workers and Government Servants of other Departments, who have worked very dedicatedly during COVID pandemic. I genuinely anticipate that the approaching year will witness remarkable advancements, an abundance of peace, friendly relations, and overall growth in our Islands.

My earnest prayer is for the undisturbed peace and harmony of our 'Mini World,' (A & N Islands) and I hope that this New Year also brings serenity, prosperity, optimal health, and joy to the lives of all residents of Andaman and Nicobar Islands. May the New Year be a canvas painted with moments of laughter, accomplishments, and shared aspirations.

Wishing you all a Happy New Year filled with endless possibilities and success.
