Port Blair, Jan. 13

The 'Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra' programme was organised at Atal Bihari Vajpayee Auditorium, Rangat today. Admiral D K Joshi, PVSM, AVSM, YSM, NM, VSM (Retd.), Hon'ble Lt. Governor, A&N Islands and Vice-Chairman, Islands Development Agency as the chief guest inaugurated the programme by lighting the traditional oil lamp. The Deputy Commissioner, N&M, Shri Ankit Yadav, Adhyaksh, ZP North & Middle Andaman, Shri Subrata Basu, Assistant Commissioner, Rangat, Ms. Sapna Priya, Senior Officers of the Line Departments at Rangat and general public attended the programme.

Addressing the gathering, the Lt. Governor stated that the Govt. of India launched the nationwide campaign, 'Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra' to raise awareness through outreach activities to achieve saturation of schemes and to ensure that benefits of flagship schemes reach the targeted beneficiaries in a time bound manner. The Yatra in A&N Islands started from the southernmost part of India that is Campbell Bay in Great Nicobar Island and activities of Sankalp Yatra is continuing in different parts of the Islands. This Yatra has two aspects and the first is known as PM Flagship Schemes, under which, the number of beneficiaries is increasing day by day and these schemes have a direct connect with the quality of life and ease of living of the common man. For a developed nation, quality of life and ease of living are of paramount importance and we are moving in this direction, the Lt. Governor remarked.

The second aspect to become a developed nation is infrastructure development which has a direct connect with Industries, Tourism, growth, employment opportunities etc. and since last 8 to 10 years infrastructure development is taking place in a speedier manner, the Lt. Governor mentioned.

Informing about the infrastructure projects especially in N&M Andaman, the Lt. Governor informed that a good number of projects are coming up in this area which will directly or indirectly benefit the entire population of North & Middle Andaman. He said, the beginning of the year- 2024 is a transformational year for the North & Middle Andaman District. In the coming 3 to 4 months, the planned projects for the N&M Andaman will have a direct impact on the beneficiaries of N&M Andaman and they will be benefitted out of it. The preparatory activities of these projects have already started since last few years and the time of its fructification has started from the beginning of this year, he said.

Listing out the projects for North & Middle Andaman District starting from Diglipur, the

Lt. Governor said, a high profile project of Tourism Hospitality is coming up in Ross & Smith Islands under PPP mode. Final proceeding of the project from the Consultant has been received and it will be brought to contract stage in the coming 3 to 4 months. Flight facility under UDAN Scheme will start from Shibpur (Diglipur), for which, the selection of operator has been completed by Civil Aviation Ministry. The Runway at Shibpur is being extended further and it will pave the way for operation of flights. Further, for berthing of bigger vessels at Diglipur Port, a new Greenfield Deep Water Port will be developed at Atlanta Bay in Diglipur, the Lt. Governor said adding that a Tourism project is also going to come up at Avis Island in Mayabunder. A big Tourism & Hospitality project of A&N Islands covering a massive area of 42 hectare is coming up at Long Island and this project will also be brought in tendering and contract stage in the coming 3 to 4 months time, the Lt. Governor said adding that Long Island has also been identified for sea plane operations, for which, operator has been selected and it will start soon. The direct benefit of this project will be the people of N&M. All these infrastructure initiative is a contribution of A&N Islands towards the attainment of the dream of Hon'ble Prime Minister of 'Viksit Bharat'.

MESSAGE

On this solemn occasion of Armed Forces Veterans' Day on 14th January, I extend my heartiest wishes to all veterans' of the Andaman & Nicobar Islands. This day is celebrated each year on 14th January to pay tribute to the selfless devotion and exemplary services rendered by our veterans in the services of the Nation.

It is a matter of pride that our veterans embody the true spirit of heroism, facing challenges with resilience and determination to protect the values we hold. Their sacrifices, both seen and unseen, have contributed immeasurably to the peace and freedom we enjoy today. As we commemorate this day, let us not only reflect on the sacrifices made by our veterans but also express our profound appreciation for their selfless service. Each veteran carries a unique story of duty, honor and commitment, and it is our collective responsibility to ensure their stories are heard and their contributions are never forgotten. Our countrymen will ever remain indebted to those who have stood on the frontlines to safeguard our nation. I urge each one of you to continue the dedicated efforts towards the nation building process in future as well.

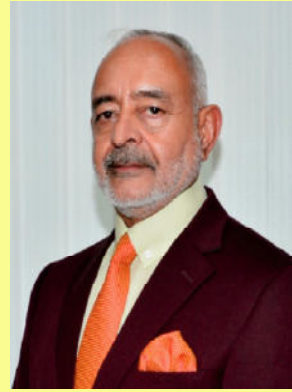

On behalf of A & N Administration and Islanders, I extend my best wishes to all our veterans and their family members for their future endeavours.

MESSAGE

I am glad to learn that Andaman and Nicobar Islands is observing "Animal Welfare Fortnight 2024" along with the rest of the country from 14th to 30th January, 2024. The fortnight serves as a platform to educate and engage the society in understanding the intrinsic value of animal life, promoting respectful and compassionate treatment across diverse species.

Human beings cohabit this planet with other living beings therefore Animals should always have a respect and a special place in society. Compassion towards Animals has always been intrinsic to Indian tradition and culture. Animals play multifaceted roles that extend far beyond mere companionship. From agriculture and transportation to therapy and conservation, animals contribute significantly to the well-being and functionality of our societies. It should be our endeavour to create awareness among the members of our society to treat all animal life with respect, kindness and compassion.

The initiatives undertaken during this fortnight will play an effective role in bringing wider vision for animal issues among the adult and children in these Islands.

On this occasion, I extend my best wishes for success of "Animal Welfare Fortnight 2024" celebrations.
