application will help the farmers in reporting incidence of diseases in finfish, shrimps, and molluscs on their farms with the field level-officers and fish disease experts as and when required. This shall help farmers in getting the scientific advice for efficient management of disease.

Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Balyan highlighted on how the fisheries sector needs to move forward by keeping welfare of fishers, fish farmers and small-scale entrepreneurs at its core. Further, he informed that a collaborative approach to be built with time to formalize the fisheries sector, ensure enhanced contribution in the national economy and larger footprint for wider reach and welfare.

Dr I. Murugan recognized the critical role of fishers and fish farmers in meeting the growing demand and also recognizes the invaluable contributions of our fishermen and fish farmers who tirelessly work to provide us with a vital source of food and sustenance. He emphasized on sustainable fishing practices that not only increase productivity but also minimize environmental impacts. He also highlighted that before 2014 around 500 startup companies were established whereas at present more than 9 lakh startup companies have been established in Fisheries sector, which holds an immense potential in both marine and inland fisheries in the country.

The program was live streamed on various social media platforms such as YouTube, Twitter, and Facebook. In all around approx. 23,000 stakeholders including fishermen, fish farmers, scholars, scientists, official dignitaries attended the event virtually covered across 33 States/UTs with around 260 locations on National Fish Farmers Day Meet 2023.

National Fish Farmers Day Meet 2023 is an occasion for the entire country to recognize fishers and fish farmers' enormous contributions and commitment to sustainable development of fisheries. National Fish Farmers Day is observed by the Department of Fisheries, Ministry of Fisheries, Animal Husbandry and Dairying, Government of India, and other stakeholders to demonstrate solidarity with all fisher folks, fish farmers and fisheries stakeholders throughout the country and recognize the contributions of fishers and fish farmers to the country's economy and food security. It is an essential forum for recognizing the significant role that fishers and fish farmers play in supplying the growing demand for fish protein, creating job opportunities, and contributing to the country's food security. It demonstrates their commitment and inventiveness in implementing contemporary aquaculture techniques, increasing fish yield, and conserving aquatic resources. Scientific research and technical interventions have fueled significant developments in the fisheries sector throughout the years.

Indian Fisheries Sector made a record Fish production of 162.48 lakh tons during the year 2021-22. The Inland fisheries and Aquaculture Production nearly doubled from 61.36 Lakh tons in 2014-2015 to 121.21 Lakh tons in 2021-2022 with the Average Annual Growth rate of fisheries sector around 9%, fish production around 7% and Inland fisheries and Aquaculture around 9% since 2014-15. The Fisheries Sector Contributes around 1% to National GVA. Since 2014-15, the Department of Fisheries, Government of India through its key Schemes and Programs supported the construction of about 38,992 ha of new aquaculture ponds and renovation of 8,573 ha of farms, construction of 19 brood banks and 1243 hatcheries, construction/modernization of 107 fishing harbours and fish landing centers at a cost of Rs. 8989 crores, development of 38820 reservoir cages, 14471 Re-circulatory Systems and Biofloc Units, 31925 fish transportation facilitates, 7549 fish retail markets and kiosks, 993 feed mills, 8085 new boats and fishing vessels, motorization of 8379 traditional crafts, 861 cold chain units.

The observance of National Fish Farmers Day will certainly help in raising awareness about the significance of aquaculture and its impact on food security, as fish is one of the healthiest options to mitigate hunger and nutrient deficiency. It will provide a platform to educate the public about the challenges, innovations, and sustainable practices employed by fish farmers. The celebration of National Fish Farmers Day Meet- 2023 will provide a platform for fish farmers to support in transforming the fisheries value chain for overall development of Indian fisheries sector. The observance of the event will further strengthen the development of fisheries sector in a sustainable, responsible, exclusive, and equitable manner.
