'SAGAR SAMPARK' Differential Global Navigation Satellite System to strengthen Maritime sector inaugurated

This 'Made in India' system will provide more accurate information to the ships for safe navigation: Minister

New Delhi, July 12 (PIB)

The Ministry of Ports, Shipping and Waterways is committed towards innovation, building best infrastructure, and strengthening the Indian Maritime sector. Today, to further the digital initiative in maritime sector, the Union Minister of Ports, Shipping and Waterways, Shri Sarbananda Sonowal inaugurated the indigenous Differential Global Navigation Satellite System (DGNSS) 'SAGAR SAMPARK' in the presence of Shri Shripad Y. Naik, the Minister of State of Ports, Shipping and Waterways. DGNSS is a terrestrial based enhancement system which corrects the errors and inaccuracies in the Global Navigation Satellite System (GNSS) allowing for more accurate positioning information.

Speaking on the occasion, Shri Sarbananda Sonowal said, 'Under the leadership of the Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi ji, the Ministry of Ports, Shipping and Waterways have given high priority to the safety of Navigation, especially due to the considerable increase in shipping volume in the recent groundings, and accidents in the port and harbour areas. This will lead to safe & efficient movement of vessels.

Speaking on the occasion, Shri Shripad Y. Naik said, 'DGNSS is an important Radio Aid to Navigation towards fulfillment of international obligations of International Maritime Organisation (IMO), Safety of Life at Sea (SOLAS) and International Association of Marine Aids to Navigation and Lighthouse Authorities (IALA)'.

After recapitalization with multiple satellite constellations like GPS and Global Navigation Satellite System (GLONASS), DGNSS further increases the availability and redundancy as per International standards

Interview of Secretary (Revenue) broadcast through Akashvani

Secretary (Revenue) elucidates on multifarious role of Revenue Deptt. in providing various citizen centric and other services

Port Blair, July 12

The Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS has directed all Secretaries of the Departments concerned to give interviews in Akashvani Port Blair and Doordarshan (DD) and highlight the initiatives taken by the Departments involved in public delivery services to improve public delivery system, social infrastructure and social benefit schemes. The interview of Secretary (Revenue), Shri Pankaj Kumar, IAS was broadcast through Akashvani Port Blair and the same is being reproduced in Q&A format for the wider reach of the people of A&N Islands.

Interviewer: What are the major functions of Revenue Department in all the three Districts?

Secretary (Revenue): The Revenue Department implements Revenue Law and Rules in A&N Islands, which is also known as Andaman and Nicobar Islands Land Regulations & Land Reforms (LRLR). The Revenue Authorities starting from Patwaris to Secretary (Revenue) implements Revenue Law & Rules in the Islands. The Deputy Commissioners of respective District also functions as District Magistrates and they are also the In-charge of Law & Order of their respective Districts. The major role played by the Deputy Commissioner is the relief and rehabilitation during natural calamities, disasters and floods. The District Administration also provides temporary and permanent relief to the people affected by natural calamities. Another major role of the Deputy Commissioner who is also the District Election Officer is to conduct elections. The Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman is the Returning Officer for the Parliamentary Election in Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

Interviewer: How many services are currently available in digital mode?

Secretary (Revenue): At present, there are 31 services which are available in digital mode, which includes Solvency Certificate, Tribal Pass, Sale Permission, Gift Permission, Dependent Certificate, Family Member Certificate, OBC Certificate, Permit for Selling and Storing of Fertilizers, Society Registration etc. Efforts are on to digitalize more services.

Interviewer: What is the difference between Revenue Land and Forest Land?

Secretary (Revenue): The custodian of the Revenue Land is Revenue Department wherein Revenue Laws are applicable. The Custodian of the Forest Land is Forest Department. The law of Forest Department is applicable in Reserved Forest, Wildlife Sanctuary and Deemed Forest.

Interviewer: What are the things a person ought to know before purchasing land in A&N Islands?

Secretary (Revenue): Before purchasing land in Andaman and Nicobar Islands, one has to know about the classification of land here. The Land Rules of Andaman and Nicobar Islands are different from mainland. There is no ownership. There are people of Pre-1942 Settlers who have been allotted land by GoI from time to time. Some people encroached the land for which the Govt. of India brought a policy under which the Pre-1942 Settlers who are having land in their possession till 1961 have to be regularized. The person who wish to purchase land should check the type of land first. The second classification is whether the land is agriculture land, house site or commercial, has to be checked. The third thing is whether the land is mortgaged or someone else is in the possession of the land which needs to be checked and it can be verified from the Deputy Commissioner's Office. Land acquisition is very less in A&N Islands. Circle rate is also important as on the basis of circle rate, one has to pay stamp duty and registration fee. There is also a provision under A & N Land Revenue and Land Reforms Regulation under which a person who has purchased agriculture land can apply to the SDM for diversion of land. Currently, planning is underway, after which, the land will be classified in different categories viz. Residential Sites, Commercial Sites and Industrial Sites. After completion of the planning process, the SDM will take action regarding diversion.

Interviewer: Is it safe to buy property through property dealers?

Secretary (Revenue): The existence of property dealers is since ages and property dealer works as a facilitator. In our country, property dealer has not been provided legal identity, however, in many countries, they have been provided legal status. The main role of the property dealer is to coordinate between two parties i.e. seller and buyer. However, while going to purchase land, the purchaser has the responsibility to minutely check all the documents and should not solely bank upon property dealers.

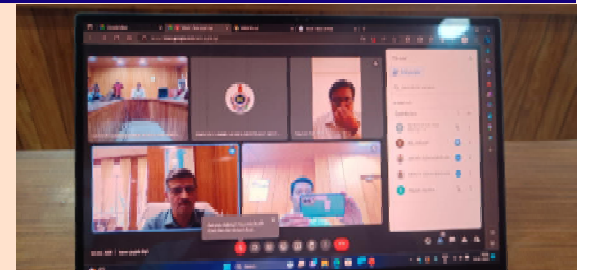

Interviewer: What steps have been taken to stop encroachment of Government land?

Secretary (Revenue): There is a provision to remove encroachment under Section 202 of the A&N Land Revenue and Land Reform Regulation. Under Sub-Section 8, when Notice is served upon the encroacher, he immediately knocks the door of the Civil Court and files a suit and takes stay. To avoid this practice, suggestions have been given to amend the A&N Land Revenue and Land Reform Regulation. As this being an Act, only Parliament has the power to amend it. However, the DCs and SDMs carry out encroachment eviction drives at regular intervals. During the encroachment eviction drive, many encroached land have been brought back to Government possession.

Interviewer: Does Revenue Department deal with matters of General Election?

Secretary (Revenue): All District Magistrates are District Election Officers. They are responsible for the election in the area under their jurisdiction. The Election Commission has nominated Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman as the Returning Officer for the Parliamentary Election. The Election is conducted under the supervision of the Deputy Commissioner (South Andaman). Revision of Electoral Rolls is also done under the supervision of Deputy Commissioners, at different times. All the Deputy Commissioners conduct elections at their respective District under the supervision of Chief Electoral Officer, A&N Islands.

Interviewer: Matters of Wakf Board and Rajya Sainik Board are also dealt by your Department?

Secretary (Revenue): The Administrative Secretary of the Wakf Board and Rajya Sainik Board is Secretary (Revenue). Both the Boards work as per the Act enacted by the GoI. Grant of expenditure for both the Boards is processed by the Secretary (Revenue) and it is sent to the Lt. Governor, A&N Islands for approval.

Interviewer: Kindly explain the role of Revenue Department during Disaster?

Secretary (Revenue): Relief and Rehabilitation is looked after by the Deputy Commissioner Office since British period. Majority of the public dealing is done by the District Office on a daily basis. The Deputy Commissioners are CEO of District Disaster Management Authority. It is the duty of the DCs to look after the relief and rehabilitation measures during natural calamities at their respective Districts. There are two types of rehabilitation. First is temporary rehabilitation which is carried out during floods and cyclones. Permanent rehabilitation was done during Tsunami, wherein permanent shelters were constructed for the affected people. All these works are done by District Administration.

Interviewer: Can you elaborate on the responsibilities of employees of Revenue Department?

Secretary (Revenue): Proper implementation of A&N Islands Land Revenue and Land Reforms Regulation 1966 has to be done by Revenue official from the level of Patwaries up to Secretary (Revenue). Normally, Patwaries are the custodian of records. Revenue Inspector is entrusted with field work. Surveyors carry out survey where settlement is under progress. Surveyors and Draughtsman works under Assistant Commissioner Settlement and they report on the settlement issues directly to the Secretary (Revenue) who is also the Settlement Commissioner.

Interviewer: What are the types of licenses issued by your Department?

Secretary (Revenue): Different types of licenses are issued viz. Loudspeaker Permission, Land Tenancy License, Tribal Pass, Society Registration, Firm Registration, Inland Vessel Registration, License for Explosive and Crackers, License of Storing of Fertilizer, License for Slaughtering of Animals etc.

Interviewer: Do you have a Toll-Free Number for getting information about all the public services provided by your Department?

Secretary (Revenue): District Control Room is functioning in all the Districts from where people can get information. There is a Toll Free Number 1070, which is activated during disaster.

Interviewer: Considering the remoteness of these Islands, what is being done to bring Administration closer to the residents?

Secretary (Revenue): In order to provide ease of business to the general public, the Revenue Department has made maximum services through online, so that people can avail required services sitting in their homes. Common Service Centres are also there which are operated through IT Department from where people can apply for the required services. Apart from this, e-corners are functioning in every District Offices wherein they can apply for the required certificates. Through this facility, people can get the required certificates at their place of stay. Although some services are yet to go online, however, the Revenue Department is making best efforts to digitize the left out services as soon as possible.

Interviewer: What are the statutory functions of the Deputy Commissioner?

Secretary (Revenue): The Deputy Commissioner is the overall In-charge of the District who deals with all the Revenue related matters. He is the Nodal Officer at the District level to implement the Revenue Laws. Apart from this, the DC also executes works such as Relief and Rehabilitation, Protocol, Stamp determination, issuance of licences, magisterial functions as assigned under CRPC etc.

Interviewer: What is the role of Deputy Commissioner in implementation of MPLAD fund?

Secretary (Revenue): The Deputy Commissioners are the Nodal Authority for implementation of MPLAD fund in their respective Districts. The proposal received under MPLAD by the Member of Parliament is first scrutinized, recommended and then it is executed by different Departments. Rural Development Department is the State Nodal Department and Deputy Commissioner South Andaman is the State Nodal Authority in implementation of MPLAD fund. The proposal of MP is scrutinized first to ascertain whether the project is of public interest or not. Then it is recommended to different Departments such as APWD, Zilla Panchayat and Rural Development Department and thereafter, an estimate is prepared which paves the way for the sanction of amount by the Deputy Commissioner.

Interviewer: How many vacancies are there in your Department and what is being done to fill up the vacancies during the ongoing special recruitment drives by the A&N Administration?

Secretary (Revenue): There are 29 vacant posts of Revenue Field Assistants, 14 MTS, 4 Staff Car Drivers and the exam for which were conducted on July 9, 2023. Apart from this, there are 10 vacancies each for Surveyor and Draughtsman, the vacancy notification for the same has already been published and the last date for receiving filled in application is July 18, 2023.

Interviewer: What are the future plans of the Revenue Department?

Secretary (Revenue): The Revenue Department will strive to provide all the services through online mode for general public so that they need not come to DC Office. Many services have been digitized and some more services will also be digitized soon. Not only the applications but the Revenue Department desires that delivery of certificates is also done through online within the stipulated time, so that people can get their required services at their place of stay. The joint team of Revenue and Information Technology Department are working to further improve the online services. The Revenue Department is aware of the problem of the general public. At times, public have to provide many documents to get a particular service done and a lot of time is also wasted. To solve this issue, the Revenue Department and IT Department is working in tandem to eliminate redundant documents and a time frame will also be prepared through e-District Citizen Charter. As per the citizen charter, the official has to dispose of the applications within the time frame. A mechanism is also devised, so that the Senior Officer can also monitor the pendency of the applications and corrective measures can be taken for the speedy disposal of the applications/ services sought by an individual.

Their identity will be kept secretly and they will be suitably rewarded for their brave act, a press release from SP (N&M) said.

Atal Vayo Abhyuday Yojana: Empowering the Elderly for a Dignified Life

New Delhi, July 12 (PIB)

The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment has been working towards creating an inclusive and equitable society for all its citizens. Over the past nine years, the Ministry has launched several schemes and initiatives aimed at empowering marginalized sections of society, including students from Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, and Other Backward Classes through Scholarships, Elderly Citizens, Safai Karmcharis, and Transgender people. The Atal Vayo Abhyuday Yojana (AVYAY), introduced by the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, is a comprehensive initiative aimed at empowering senior citizens in India. This scheme recognizes the invaluable contribution made by the elderly to society and seeks to ensure their well-being and social inclusion. By recognizing the invaluable contributions of the elderly to society, the Government aims to empower and uplift them, ensuring their active participation and inclusion in all aspects of life.

The Department of Social Justice and Empowerment, being the Nodal Department for welfare of senior citizens, is implementing various programs and schemes. National Action Plan for Senior Citizen (NAPSrc) had been revamped, renamed as Atal Vayo Abhyuday Yojana (AVYAY) and subsumed in April 2021.

Under the umbrella Scheme, Atal Vayo Abhyuday Yojana (AVYAY), an Integrated Programme for Senior Citizens (IPSrcC) provides financial assistance to eligible organization's for running and maintenance of Senior Citizen Homes/Continuous Care Homes to improve the quality of life of the senior citizens, especially indigent senior citizens by providing basic amenities, entertainment opportunities and by encouraging productive and active ageing.

The Achievements under IPSrC through various activities are that presently a total of 552 Senior Citizen Homes, 14

Continuous care homes, 19 mobile Medicare units and 5 physiotherapy clinics are being assisted and maintained by different NGOs across the country. Nearly 1.5 lakh beneficiaries are staying in the Senior Citizen homes. 361 districts across the country have been covered. During the last 3 financial years a total of Rs. 288.08 crore grants in aid released and number of beneficiaries is 363570.

Another component under the AVYAY Scheme is Rashtriya

Vayoshri Yojana (RVY), to provide eligible senior citizens suffering from any of the age-related disability/infirmity, with assisted living devices which can restore near normalcy in their bodily functions, overcoming the disability/infirmity manifested such as low vision, hearing impairment, loss of teeth and loco-motor disabilities. Financial criteria for beneficiaries are either the Senior Citizen belongs to 'Below Poverty Line' (BPL) category or he/she has income up to Rs. 15,000 (Rupees Fifteen Thousand) per month.

The Achievements under Rashtriya Vayoshri Yojana (RVY) through various implementing agencies are that a total of 269 camps have been held till date and the number of beneficiaries of this camp is over 4 lakhs. Under this scheme, a total amount of Rs. 140.34 crore has been released during the last 3 financial years and a total number of 848841 devices where distributed to 157514 beneficiaries in 130 camps.

There is a national helpline number namely Elderline for Senior Citizens. A Toll-free No. 14567 was launched on 1st October, 2021 to provide free information, Guidance, Emotional Support and field intervention in cases of abuse and rescues in order to improve the quality of life of senior citizens. Elderline is operational from 8 am to 8 pm, all 7 days of the week which is active in 31 States/UTs. A total amount of Rs. 82.68 crore has been incurred during the last 3 financial years on Elderline scheme.

The Atal Vayo Abhyuday Yojana, launched by the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, stands as a testament to the Government's commitment to the well-being and empowerment of senior citizens in India. By addressing their financial, healthcare, and social needs, the scheme aims to empower the elderly, ensuring their active participation and inclusion in society. Through this initiative, the Government strives to create an environment where senior citizens can live a life of dignity, respect, and fulfilment, acknowledging their invaluable contributions to the nation.

Hasgulla Club for senior citizens organized by Gandhi Global Family (Women)

Port Blair, July 12

'Hasgulla Club', an initiative by the Directorate of Social Welfare for the senior citizens was organized recently in association with 'Gandhi Global Family' (Women), A&N Islands. The four-day pilot programme started with yoga session at Jogger's Park in which Smti Anuradha Lall, President, GGF welcomed the gathering.

On Day 2, an 'Eye Camp' was held at Chinmaya Mission in collaboration with Rohin's Eye Hospital. About 40 senior citizens attended the camp. On day 3, grooming and laughter yoga was organized and on day 4 spiritual sessions were held. Smti Mehresh Jadwet, General Secretary, GGF, proposed the vote of thanks while Swami Sudhanandji of Chinmaya Mission concluded the programme with a motivational speech.

Such Hasgulla Club is being organized all over Andaman & Nicobar Islands to promote the concept of active ageing. After 60 years, senior citizens should not be left behind but rather should be an asset to the society. Hence, the Department is providing them with health, legal support, grooming, digital literacy, entrepreneurship and banking training, a press release from Directorate of Social Welfare said.

NOTICE

To,
Shri Rahul Kishen (Marine Department)
S/o Late Rajin Kishen
R/o Austinabad Harbour Colony
C/o Kishen & Sons Bar
Mobile No.9933260159
Sub.: Legal / Demand Notice under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act.
Sir,

Under the instructions from and on behalf of my client Shri Govind Singh, S/o Late Ram Lall, R/o Austinabad village, Port Blair, I do hereby given you the following Notice:-

1. That being a resident of co-village you are having good friendly relation with my aforesaid client and accordingly you asked for a friendly loan of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs only) from my aforesaid client in the month of February, 2022 to establish your Bar namely 'Kishen & Sons Bar', situated at Austinabad village, Port Blair with the assurance that after establishment of the Bar you will return back the said amount in one installment.

2. That thereafter my aforesaid client arranged money and paid the said amount of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs Only) to you by cash in 5 installment since the month of February, 2022 to the month of January, 2023 and accordingly you had issued a Cheque of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs only) vide Cheque No.487283 from your bank account maintained in SBI, Mohanpura Branch, Port Blair to my aforesaid client on 27-01-2023 and requested my client to deposit the same to the bank for encashment after 3 months.

3. That after receiving the said friendly loan amount of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs only) from my client, you have established your Bar namely, 'Kishen & Sons Bar', Austinabad but did not return back the loan amount and accordingly my aforesaid client deposited the aforesaid Cheque issued by you to discharge your legal liability to make the amount to his bank account maintained in the same bank namely SBI, Mohanpura Branch on 28-03-2023 for encashment but the bank dishonoured the Cheque issued by you to my client to discharge your legal liability to make the payment and return back the Cheque along with the return memo dated: 29-03-2023.

4. That thereafter my client tried to contact with you over phone but you are avoiding the phone call of my client and also not responding the call of my client in respect to dishonor of Cheque.

5. That you have given the aforesaid Cheque to my client to discharge your legal liability to make the payment but even after dishonor of the said Cheques, you failed to make the payment by cash to my client and as such you have committed the offence under the Negotiable Instrument Act.

In view of the above, I have instructions to call upon you to pay the Cheque amount of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs only) by cash to my client within 15 days from the date of receipt of this notice, failing which I have instructions to file a case under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act against you in before the competent Court of law for recovery of the Cheque amount prescribed in the law at your entire risk and consequences thereof, which you kindly note.
