PM to inaugurate the first-ever National Training Conclave Representatives from Civil Services Training Institutes will participate in the Conclave Conclave to foster collaboration among training institutes and help strengthen the training infrastructure for Civil Servants

New Delhi, June 10

Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi will inaugurate the first-ever National Training Conclave at the International Exhibition and Convention Centre Pragati Maidan, New Delhi tomorrow (June 11) at 10.30 am. Prime Minister will also address the gathering on the occasion. Prime Minister has been a proponent of improving the governance process and policy implementation in the country through capacity building of civil service. Guided by this vision, the National Programme for Civil Services Capacity Building (NPCSCB) - 'Mission Karmayogi' was launched to prepare a future-ready civil service with the right attitude, skills and knowledge. This Conclave is yet another step in this direction.

The National Training Conclave is being hosted by Capacity Building

Commission with an objective to foster collaboration among civil services training institutes and strengthen the training infrastructure for Civil Servants across the country. More than 1500 representatives from training institutes, including Central Training Institutes, State Administrative Training Institutes, Regional and Zonal Training Institutes, and Research institutes will participate in the conclave. Civil Servants from Central Government Departments, State Governments, Local Governments, as well as experts from the private sector will take part in the deliberations.

This diverse gathering will foster the exchange of ideas, identify the challenges being faced and opportunities available, and generate actionable solutions and comprehensive strategies for capacity building. The conclave will have eight panel discussions, each focusing on key concerns pertinent to Civil Services Training Institutes such as faculty development, training impact assessment and content digitisation, among others. ## Don't fall prey to fraudulent job offers

Job fraudster impersonating as VSI Airport employee arrested for deceptive job offers by Central Crime Station

A&N Police advices victims of such crime to report at PS CCS

Port Blair, June 10

The Central Crime Station has successfully arrested an individual involved in a fraudulent job offers at VSI Airport, Port Blair, targeting unemployed youth of A&N Islands by impersonating as employee at the VSI Airport. This arrest marks a significant milestone in the ongoing efforts to combat job fraud and protect vulnerable individuals seeking legitimate employment opportunities.

The suspect, identified as R. Sekar, S/o Late Ramnathan, 35 yrs, R/o Old Bimblitan using mobile No. 7695027352, cunningly exploited the hopes and aspirations of job seekers. He presented himself as representative with influence over job placements within VSI Airport in exchange for substantial fees and personal information.

Later, upon receiving money and personal documents, he avoids taking call from the victims. A&N Police strongly encourages anyone who may have fallen victim to this job scam or possesses information related to the case to come forward and report it immediately at PS Central Crime Station or contact 100, 03192-232586, 9476084840, 9474290250. Their cooperation will greatly aid the ongoing investigations and help prevent further incidents of job fraud in these Islands.

A&N Police advises individuals to exercise caution when encountering job opportunities, particularly those that involve advance fees or unrealistic promises. It is crucial to verify the authenticity of job postings and perform due diligence before sharing personal information or making financial transactions, a press release from SP (CID) said.

giving them two years more to meet the priority sector lending targets and designating a Nodal Officer in RBI.

The Ministry of Cooperation in a statement said that UCBs can now open new branches up to 10 per cent of the number of branches in the previous financial year without prior approval of RBI in their approved area of operation. To avail this facility, UCBs have to get the policy approved by their board and comply with the Financially Sound and Well Managed Norms. The Ministry added that now Co-operative Banks through board-approved policies can provide process for technical write-off as well as settlement with borrowers. This has brought Cooperative Banks at par with other commercial banks now. It added that RBI has also decided to extend the timeline for Urban Co-operative Banks to achieve Priority Sector Lending targets by two years up to the 31st of March, 2026.
