Vice President joins International Day of Yoga celebrations in Jabalpur

With India's efforts, Yoga Day has become a world festival: Vice President

New Delhi, June 21 (PIB)

The Vice-President of India, Shri Jagdeep Dhankhar noted that Yoga brings about the unity of body, mind and soul, and this ancient science not just focusses on the welfare of individuals, but also the well-being of entire humanity. In this context, he made reference to Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi's statement, underlining Yoga as "Zero-budget health assurance".

Addressing the 9th International Day of Yoga celebrations at Jabalpur, Madhya Pradesh today, the Vice-President emphasized that Yoga is not for a single special day or occasion, but one that should be an integral aspect of people's daily lives.

Referring to the theme of this year's International Day of Yoga- 'Yoga for Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam'-the Vice-President drew attention to the consonance of this theme with that of India's G20 Presidency, which is 'One Earth, One Family, One Future'. The essence of both is a reflection of India's commitment to unite countries and amplify the message of global peace and friendship, he said.

Lauding the leadership role played by Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi at the 69th Session of the United Nations General Assembly in proposing to mark June 21 as the International Day of Yoga, Shri Dhankhar underscored the significance of the fact that the proposal was adopted almost unanimously by 193 countries in the shortest ever time. With India's efforts, Yoga Day has

Yoga is a way of life and it is a holistic approach to achieving well-being: PM

In a divided world, yoga unites millions of people across the globe: UN Secretary General

New York, June 21

Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi led the celebrations of International Day of Yoga at the United Nations Headquarters in New York today. Several dignitaries including United Nations General Assembly, President Mr. Csaba Korosi, New York City Mayor, Mr. Eric Adams, and thousands of yoga enthusiasts participated in the Yoga session.

Addressing the event, the Prime Minister said, Yoga means to unite. He said, Yoga is a way of life and it is a holistic approach to achieving well-being. Thanking the people, who came to United Nations Headquarter to practice Yoga, the Prime Minister said, the power of Yoga must be used to be healthy, happy, and to be kind to ourselves and each other. He said, the power of Yoga must be used to build bridges of a peaceful world, a cleaner, greener, sustainable future. He urged the people to join hands to realize the goal of One Earth, One Family, and One Future.

Highlighting the merits of Yoga in life, the Prime Minister said, Yoga is for everyone and all faith and culture.

PM addresses National celebration of International Day of Yoga, 2023 via video message

Coming together of more than 180 countries on India's call is historic and unprecedented: PM

"Yoga creates a healthy and powerful society where the collective energy is much more"

New Delhi, June 21

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi addressed the National celebration of International Day of Yoga, 2023 via video message today. The National celebration of 9th International Day of Yoga 2023 was led by Vice President of India, Shri Jagdeep Dhankhar at Jabalpur in Madhya Pradesh. Addressing the gathering, the Prime Minister conveyed his best wishes to the citizens on the International Day of Yoga and explained that he is connecting with them via a video message as he is currently touring the United States of America due to various commitments, unlike previous occasions of Yoga Day when he was present here.

The Prime Minister

said, "the coming together of more than 180 countries on India's call is historic and unprecedented." He recalled the support of a record number of countries in 2014 when the proposal for Yoga Day was tabled in the UN General Assembly making Yoga a global movement and a global spirit through the International Day of Yoga.

Highlighting the idea of the 'Ocean Ring of Yoga' which makes Yoga Day even more special, the Prime Minister said that it is based on the mutual relation between the idea of yoga and the expanse of the ocean. Shri Modi also highlighted the 'Yog Bharatmala and Yoga Sagarmala' made by Army personnel using

Yoga is pride of our Country which brings together the body & mind and it is a holistic approach to life: Minister

Staff Correspondent

Port Blair, June 21

"Yoga is pride of our Country which brings together the body & mind and it is a holistic approach to life. Yoga helps us all to be in a better position to meet the increasing challenges around us," said the Hon'ble Minister of State for Information & Broadcasting and Fisheries, Animal Husbandry & Dairying, GoI, Dr. L. Murugan while interacting with the media on the sidelines of the 9th International Day of Yoga (IDY) celebration held at the Govt. Girls

Senior Secondary School auditorium here this morning.

The Minister said, International Day of Yoga is observed every year on June 21 to raise awareness about this ancient practice and to celebrate the physical and spiritual prowess that yoga has brought to the world. He further said that due to the initiative of our Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, the United Nation recognised Yoga and declared June 21 as the 'International Day of Yoga'.

The Minister said that it is a proud moment as yoga is being practised world over. "Yoga has remedies for every illness and it brings peace of mind, inculcates self-discipline and ensures physical and mental wellness," the Minister said. The Minister also expressed his happiness to be a part of the IDY celebrations in A&N Islands and able to practice yoga along with the Lt. Governor, Chief Secretary, Senior Officers and students. He also appealed to the people to practice yoga regularly for a healthier lifestyle and to adopt yoga in their daily lives and experience its transformative powers.

Terming Yoga as truly universal, he said, it is a way to live in harmony, with others and with nature. He said, Yoga is flexible as it can be practiced anywhere. He said, Yoga comes from India and it is a very old tradition. Shri Modi said it is also living and dynamic like all ancient traditions and Yoga is free from copyright and patent. On this occasion, the Prime Minister also highlighted the importance of Millet. He said the entire world came together to support India's proposal to celebrate 2023 as the International Year of Millets last year. Terming millets, a superfood, he said, millets promotes holistic health and is good for the environment too.

Earlier, in a video message, Secretary General of the United Nations, Mr. António Guterres said, in a divided world, yoga unites millions of people across the globe, for whom it is a source of strength, harmony, and peace. He urged the people to embrace this spirit of unity and resolve to build a better, more harmonious world for people and the planet.

Addressing the gathering at the United Nations Headquarters, United Nations General Assembly, President, Mr Csaba Korosi said, Yoga is a way of uniting mind, body, and also the environment. He said Yoga changes physical performance. (Source: india.gov.in)

The Secretary (Health), Shri Satyendra Singh Dursawat proposed the vote of thanks on the occasion. The main function of the IDY-2023 concluded with the National Anthem.

MP organises 9th edition of International Day of Yoga at Pranab Kanya Sangh

Port Blair, June 21

The 9th edition of International Day of Yoga (IDY) was celebrated with great enthusiasm in A&N Islands. This year's theme was 'Yoga for Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam'. While the day was celebrated across the Islands, with many yoga sessions and functions organised, the Hon'ble Member of Parliament, A&N Islands, Shri Kuldeep Rai Sharma had decided to reach out to the not so privileged members of the society to celebrate the day. Upon the request made by the Member of Parliament, Yogini Shivani Singhkapath (Masters in Yoga from Gurukul, Haridwar) conducted a week's training on yoga for the inmates of Pranab Kanya Sangh. The finale was held this morning at the Sangh's auditorium, wherein 16 inmates gave a stunning yoga performance, which kept the audience spellbound.

said that we all should adopt healthy living as our lifestyle. Yoga is one such form of meditation and physical exercise, which addresses our complete health care needs. He also said that his very intention to celebrate the International Day of Yoga at Pranab Kanya Sangh was to ensure that the benefits of yoga also reaches the inmates of the Sangh, thus fulfilling the theme of this year's Yoga Day, 'Yoga for Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' which means that we are a family and the whole world is one, a press release from MP Office said.

water sources. Similarly, the Prime Minister continued, India's two research bases from the Arctic to Antarctica i.e. the two poles of the earth are also connected with yoga. He emphasized that the participation of crores of people from all over the country and the world in this unique celebration in such a spontaneous manner shows the vastness and fame of Yoga.

"What unites us, is Yoga", the Prime Minister explained quoting the sages. He further added that the propagation of Yoga is an extension of the idea that the whole world is included as one family. Highlighting the theme of 'One Earth, One Family, One Future' for the G20 Summit being chaired by India this year, the Prime Minister underlined that the propagation of Yoga is the propagation of the spirit of 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam'. "Today, crores of people all over the world are doing yoga together on the theme of 'Yoga for Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam', he added.

The Prime Minister stated giving reference to the Yoga scriptures that one acquires health, vigour and strength through Yoga and those who have been regularly involved in this practice over the years have felt its energy. Underlining the importance of good health at the individual as well as the family level, the Prime Minister emphasized that Yoga creates a healthy and powerful society where the collective energy is much more. He highlighted the campaigns like Swachh Bharat and Startup India that have helped in building a self-reliant nation and restoring the cultural identity of the country and said that the country and its youth have contributed a lot to this energy. "Today the minds of the country have changed leading to a change in people and their lives", he added.
