Alleviation of suffering of animals under Prevention of Cruelty of Animal Act, 1960 Section 11 of the Act prohibits confining animals in unreasonably small spaces

Port Blair, Oct. 13

The Prevention of Cruelty of Animal Act, 1960 has provision for alleviation of suffering of animals. There are various Rules under the PCA Act 1960, which address issues concerning cruelty to animals. Section 11 of the PCA act 1960 prohibits confining animals in unreasonably small spaces. In this context, use of gestation/farrowing crates for pigs is not recommended.

It is cruelty and a punishable offence if anyone "keeps or confines any animal in any cage or other receptacle which does not measure sufficiently in height, length and breadth to permit the animal a reasonable opportunity for movement". Both gestation and farrowing crates fail to allow a sow to make reasonable movements and

Commissioner-cum-Secretary (PWD) chairs meeting on NH4

Immediate repairs along different stretches to ensure smooth and regular movement of vehicles and timely provision of essential supplies to N & M Andaman District emphasized

Administration will provide all support and facilitation to NHIDCL in carrying out repair works

Port Blair, Oct. 13

A meeting was convened under the Chairmanship of Commissioner-cum-Secretary (PWD), Ms Nandini Paliwal, IAS on Oct.11, 2023 in the main Conference Hall of Secretariat to discuss different issues related to bad conditions of NH4 in different stretches and issues being faced in movement of vehicles carrying essential supplies of LPG, POL and other goods to North and Middle Andaman.

The meeting was attended by all concerned senior Officials of Andaman and Nicobar Administration, Officials of NHIDCL, IOCL and representatives of Transporters. In the meeting, elaborate discussions took place on all aspects of the issue. It was emphasized that the road needs to be made motorable at the earliest by undertaking immediate repairs along different stretches so as to ensure smooth and regular movement of vehicles and timely provision of essential supplies to North and Middle Andaman District. The Commissioner (PWD) reiterated and emphasised that ANI Administration will provide all support and facilitation to NHIDCL in carrying out the repairs.

After hearing the issues raised by Transporters and the steps being taken by NHIDCL to resolve the matter, the following decisions were taken for immediate implementation:

- > NHIDCL to immediately deploy 10 teams on important works from 12.10.2023 and it will be ensured that all stretches are motorable in the next 2 - 4 days. APWD will share the details of contractors with NHIDCL so that NHIDCL can deploy additional manpower & machinery at work sites from tomorrow itself. NHIDCL will ensure that repairs are carried in a way that atleast half of the road is open for vehicular traffic.
- > The transport companies/ owners to ensure that the work of transportation is continued and essential supply and movement of trucks is not stopped. Administration will extend all support to make roads safe for transport. On this, transport companies assured that movement of vehicles carrying essential supplies would continue as usual.
- > Administration will review the daily availability of POL stock to Baratang, Mayabunder, Diglipur and be in constant touch with the Deputy Commissioner (N&M) and other agencies to ensure that transportation of POL is maintained and supply is replenished.
