PM dedicates Phase 1 of India International Convention and Expo Centre - 'Yashobhoomi' to the nation in New Delhi

Launches 'PM Vishwakarma Scheme' for traditional artisans & craftspeople on Vishwakarma Jayanti

"It is the need of the hour that Vishwakarmas are recognised and supported": PM

New Delhi, Sept. 17 (PIB)

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi dedicated Phase 1 of India International Convention and Expo Centre - 'Yashobhoomi' to the nation at Dwarka, New Delhi today. 'Yashobhoomi' boasts of a magnificent Convention Centre, multiple Exhibition halls and other facilities. He also launched 'PM Vishwakarma Scheme' for traditional artisans and craftspeople on the occasion of Vishwakarma Jayanti. The Prime Minister also launched the PM Vishwakarma logo, tagline and portal. He also released a customized stamp sheet, a tool kit e-booklet and video on the occasion. The Prime Minister distributed Vishwakarma Certificates to 18 beneficiaries.

Upon arriving at the venue, the Prime Minister took a walk-through of the exhibition - Guru-Shishya Parampara and New Technology. He also inspected the 3D Model of Yashobhoomi. Earlier in the day, the Prime Minister inaugurated the extension of the Delhi Airport Metro Express line from Dwarka Sector 21 to a new metro station 'Yashobhoomi Dwarka Sector 25'.

Addressing the gathering, the Prime Minister conveyed his best wishes on the occasion of Vishwakarma Jayanti and remarked that it is dedicated to the traditional artisans and craftspeople. He expressed delight at getting the opportunity to connect with millions of Vishwakarmas from across the country. He also highlighted the great experience of visiting the exhibition showcased on the occasion and interacting with the artisans and craftsmen. He also urged the citizens to visit the venue. The Prime Minister said that for the lakhs of artisans and their families PM Vishwakarma scheme is coming as a ray of hope.

Regarding the International Convention and Expo Centre - 'Yashobhoomi', the Prime Minister acknowledged the contribution of the Shramiks and Vishwakarmas in the construction of the magnificent facility. "Today I dedicate 'Yashobhoomi' to every worker of the country, to every Vishwakarma", he said. He told the Vishwakarmas linked with today's program that 'Yashobhoomi' is going to be a vibrant center connecting their creations with the world and global markets.

The Prime Minister underlined the contribution and importance of the Vishwakarmas in the everyday life of the country. The Prime Minister remarked that Vishwakarmas will always remain significant in society, no matter the advancements made in technology. He said that it is the need of the hour that Vishwakarmas are recognised and supported.

"The Government has come forward as a partner to elevate the respect, enhance the capabilities, and grow the prosperity of the Vishwakarmas", Shri Modi remarked. Throwing light on the 18 focus areas of artisans and craftsmen, the Prime Minister informed that carpenters, blacksmiths, goldsmiths, sculptors, potters, cobblers, tailors, masons, hairdressers, washermen etc. have been included in the PM Vishwakarma Scheme and the expenditure will be Rs 13,000 crores.

Recalling his personal experience while talking to artisans during his foreign tours, the Prime Minister highlighted the growing demand for handmade products. He said that the world over big companies sub-let their work to small enterprises. 'This outsourced work should come to our Vishwakarma friends and they become a part of the global supply chain, we are working for this. That is why this scheme is an effort to take the Vishwakarma friends into the modern age", the Prime Minister said.

"In these changing times, training, technology and tools are critical for the Vishwakarma friends", the Prime Minister said elaborating on the measures to impart training to the skilled artisans and professions. He informed that during training times 500 Rs per day allowance will be provided to the Viswakarma friends. He also said that a toolkit voucher worth 15 thousand rupees will also be given for a modern toolkit and the Government will help in branding, packaging and marketing of the products. He asked that toolkits be purchased only from the GST registered shops and these tools should be Made in India.

Referring to the provision of collateral-free finance for the Vishwakarmas, the Prime Minister said when a guarantee is asked for, that guarantee is given by Modi. He informed that Vishwakarma Friends will get up to Rs 3 lakh loan without being asked for any collateral with very low interest.

The Government at the Center prioritizes the development of the deprived", the Prime Minister said as he highlighted the 'One District, One Product' scheme which encourages the unique produce from every district. He also mentioned opening the bank doors for street vendors through the PM Svanidhi Scheme, and creating specialized facilities for 'divyangs'. "Modi stands for those who have nobody to care about them", the Prime Minister exclaimed. He said that he is here to serve, give a life of dignity and make sure that delivery of services happens without fail. "This is Modi's guarantee", he added.

The Prime Minister said that the world witnessed the result of the amalgamation of technology and tradition in the G20 Craft Bazaar. Even the gifts for the visiting dignitaries comprised the products of the Viswakarma friends. "This dedication to Vocal for Local is the responsibility of the entire country", he said. 'First we have to be Vocal for Local and then we will have to take the Local Global' he added. Referring to the upcoming festivities in the country such as Ganesh Chaturthi, Dhanteras, Deepawali and others, the Prime Minister urged every citizen of the country to buy local products, especially those which the Vishwakarmas of the nation have contributed to.

"The Viksit Bharat of today is crafting a new identity for itself in every sector", the Prime Minister said referring to the Bharat Mandapam which had become a topic of discussion across the world and stated that Yashobhoomi furthered this tradition with greater magnificence. "The message from Yashobhoomi is loud and clear. Any event that takes place here will attain success and fame", Shri Modi emphasized. He further added that Yashobhoomi will become a medium for showcasing the India of the future. He said that in order to showcase India's grand economic prowess and commercial muscle, this is a worthy center in the capital of the country. It reflects, he continued, both multimodal connectivity and PM Gatishakti. He illustrated this by talking about the connectivity provided to the center by Metro and inauguration of Metro terminal today. He also highlighted that the ecosystem of Yashobhoomi will take care of the travel, connectivity, accommodation and tourism needs of the users.

The Prime Minister underlined that new sectors of development and employment are emerging with the changing times. He emphasized that no person would have imagined an IT sector of such scale and proportions in India fifty to sixty years ago. Even social media was fictional thirty to thirty-five years ago, he added. Throwing light on the future of conference tourism, the Prime Minister said the sector holds immense potential for India and informed that it is worth more than Rs 25,000 crores. He highlighted that more than 32 thousand big exhibitions and expos are organized in the world every year where people coming for conference tourism spend more money than an ordinary tourist. Shri Modi also pointed out that India's share in such a big industry is only around one percent and many big companies in India go to foreign lands every year to organize their events. He further emphasized that India is also preparing itself for conference tourism now.

The Prime Minister said that Conference tourism will also progress only where there are necessary resources for events, meetings, and exhibitions, hence Bharat Mandapam and Yashobhoomi Center are now going to make Delhi the biggest hub of conference tourism. Lakhs of youth are likely to get employment. In the future, "Yashobhoomi will become a place where people from countries all over the world will come for international conferences, meetings and exhibitions", Shri Modi added.

The Prime Minister invited the stakeholders to Yashobhoomi. He said, "Today I invite people associated with the Exhibition and Event industry from countries around the world to come to Delhi. I will invite the Film Industry and TV Industry of every region of the country, East-West-North-South. You hold your award ceremonies, film festivals here, hold first film shows here. I invite people associated with International Event Companies, Exhibition Sector to join Bharat Mandapam and Yashobhoomi."

The Prime Minister expressed confidence that Bharat Mandapam and Yasobhoomi will become symbols of India's hospitality, superiority and grandeur. "Both Bharat Mandapam and Yasobhoomi are a confluence of Indian culture and state-of-the-art facilities, and these grand establishments express India's story before the world", the Prime Minister remarked. He said that it also reflects the aspirations of the new India which desires the best facilities for itself. "Mark my words", Shri Modi said "India is not going to stop now", as he urged the citizens to keep going forward, creating new goals, striving for them and transforming India into a developed country by 2047. Concluding the address, the Prime Minister emphasized the need for all citizens to work hard and come together. "Our Vishwakarma colleagues are the pride of Make in India and this International Convention Center will become a medium to showcase this pride to the world", Shri Modi concluded.

Union Minister for Finance, Smt Nirmala Sitharaman, Union Minister for Commerce and Industry, Shri Piyush Goyal, Union Minister for Education, Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, Shri Dharmendra Pradhan, Union Minister for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises, Shri Narayan Rane also addressed the gathering.

PM Vishwakarma Scheme: Eighteen traditional crafts will be covered under the Scheme

It has been the sustained focus of the Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi to give support to the people engaged in traditional crafts. This focus is driven by the desire to not only support the artisans and craftspeople financially but also to keep the age-old tradition, culture and diverse heritage alive and flourishing through local products, art and crafts. PM Vishwakarma will be fully funded by the Union Government with an outlay of Rs 13,000 crores. Under the scheme, the Vishwakarmas will be registered free of charge through Common Services Centres using the biometric-based PM Vishwakarma portal. They will be provided recognition through PM Vishwakarma certificate and ID card, skill upgradation involving basic and advanced training, toolkit incentive of Rs 15,000, collateral-free credit support up to Rs 1 lakh (first tranche) and Rs 2 lakh (second tranche) at a concessional interest rate of 5%, incentive for digital transactions and marketing support.

The Scheme aims to strengthen and nurture the Guru-Shishya parampara or family-based practice of traditional skills by Vishwakarmas working with their hands and tools. The prime focus of PM Vishwakarma is to improve the quality as well as the reach of products and services of artisans and craftspeople and to ensure that they are integrated with the domestic and global value chains.

The scheme will provide support to artisans and craftspeople in rural and urban areas across India. Eighteen traditional crafts will be covered under PM Vishwakarma. These include (i) Carpenter; (ii) Boat Maker; (iii) Armourer; (iv) Blacksmith; (v) Hammer and Tool Kit Maker; (vi) Locksmith; (vii) Goldsmith; (viii) Potter; (ix) Sculptor, Stone breaker; (x) Cobbler (Shoemsmith/ Footwear artisan); (xi) Mason (Rajmistri); (xii) Basket/Mat/Broom Maker/Coir Weaver; (xiii) Doll & Toy Maker (Traditional); (xiv) Barber; (xv) Garland maker; (xvi) Washerman; (xvii) Tailor; and (xviii) Fishing Net Maker.(Source:PIB)

India beats Sri Lanka by 10 Wickets in Colombo to win Asia Cup 2023 title

Colombo, Sept. 17

In Cricket, India demolished hosts Sri Lanka by registering a 10 wicket win in the final to lift the Asia Cup in Colombo this evening. Opting to bat, the hosts were bundled out for a paltry score of 50 runs in just 15.2 overs. India's Mohammed Siraj brought Sri Lanka down to their knees with a six-wicket haul. He was followed by Hardik Pandya who took three wickets, along with one wicket by Jasprit Bumrah.

In reply, India achieved the target of 51 runs in just 6.1 overs. Ishan Kishan at 23 and Shubman Gill at 27 remained unbeaten. Mohammed Siraj was declared player of the match and Kuldeep Yadav player of the series.

any foreign countries, they are being extended a warm welcome due to the global recognition the country has garnered. Rising above caste, creed, religion and region, the works done by Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi is taking the country towards development in a fast pace, the Minister exclaimed. He said, every sector is witnessing progress and thereby making the country self-sufficient in many fronts. Speaking about PM Vishwakarma Scheme, the Minister stated that there are 18 categories of vishwakarmas/trade practitioners who through their skilful hands and creative minds have created amazing architectural structures, constructed roads, made beautiful sculptures, arts & crafts, etc. and yet, no nobody thought about the welfare of such people and their children and family's future. He extolled the works of the Vishwakarmas and remarked that, the Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi has envisioned a brightful and rightful future for them, which will not only enable them to earn their rightful place in society but act as a means of their livelihood through the launch of this PM Vishwakarma Scheme. He said, Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Modi has ensured that every stratum of the society is treated with the same standard and respect and they should be given equal support and opportunity to excel in life, that is why today, the launch of this comprehensive scheme will benefit artisans and craftspeople in rural and urban areas across India. It encompasses eighteen traditional crafts, including carpenter, boat maker, armourer, blacksmith, hammer and tool kit maker, locksmith, goldsmith, potter, sculptor, stone breaker, cobbler (shoemsmith/footwear artisan), mason, basket, mat, broom maker, coir weaver, doll and toy maker (traditional), barber, garland maker, washerman, tailor, and fishing net maker, the Minister said.

The Hon'ble Minister further elaborated on other people centric schemes launched by the Govt. for the welfare of the poor like PM Awas Yojana aimed at providing shelter to the poor and giving them a dignified life, PM Street Vendor's AtmaNirbhar Nidhi (PMSVANidhi) to empower Street Vendors by not only extending loans to them, but also for their holistic development and economic upliftment etc. The Hon'ble Prime Minister with a humble background has ensured that every person irrespective of the financial status are treated equally and are recognized as Indian. The Hon'ble Minister also highlighted the achievements made by the country since the last 9 years not just regionally but the global respect and recognition the country has etched for itself. Today, we as citizens take pride in the country that is self-sufficient and self-reliant in many sectors, the Minister remarked. He further informed that India has registered itself as an exporter among several other countries. It has the potential to grow from Make in India to Made in India under the able leadership of Hon'ble Prime Minister, he said. The success of G20 meeting held recently had garnered India praises from all nations besides its historic achievement in launching Chandrayaan 3 to Aditya- L1, the country is unstoppable, the Hon'ble Minister remarked.

Speaking on the occasion, the Hon'ble Lt. Governor extended his heartiest congratulations and best wishes to all on the launch of 'Pradhan Mantri Vishwakarma Kaushal Samman Yojana' towards employment generation during this Amrit Kaal of Independence. He said, under the able leadership of Hon'ble Prime Minister, this scheme is an important step towards ensuring the upliftment and prosperity of the artisans and craftsmen of the country belonging to 18 different professional categories. The Hon'ble Lt. Governor said, transformational changes are taking place in the Islands in Defence and Tourism Sectors. He remarked that Andaman and Nicobar Islands have been a hub of naturally diverse traditional arts and skills due to its unique geographical location and cultural milieu. The Islanders here have been associated with some traditional craft such as wood crafts, carpentry, mat weaving, etc.

To make this scheme successful, the Hon'ble Lt. Governor said, the Island Administration will make PRI members aware about the scheme through public participation as well as provide marketing support to the products prepared by the craftsmen through Sagarika Government Emporium. This scheme will not only give a new identity to the talent of artisans and craftsmen but will also ensure that they get more opportunities to enhance their skills, he added.

Concluding his address, the Hon'ble Lt. Governor assured that he, along with his Administration and all the Islanders will remain fully dedicated in making this ambitious scheme of the Government of India, a success and in realizing the dream of a 'Developed India'.

Speaking on the occasion, the Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Shri Keshav Chandra, enlightened the gathering about the auspiciousness of Vishwakarma Jayanti coinciding with the birthday of Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi. India has a rich and diverse tradition of artisanal crafts, with millions of skilled craftspeople spread across the country and they create an array of exquisite handcrafted products, the Chief Secretary said. The PM Vishwakarma scheme will be completely funded by the Centre with an outlay of Rs. 13,000 crores. This programme will cover about 18 handicrafts and their artisans, he added. The Chief Secretary also highlighted the scheme effectively being implemented by the Administration for the benefit of the Islanders viz. PMEGP, Stand Up India, PMFME etc.

Earlier, welcoming the gathering, the Secretary (Industries), Dr. Satyendra Singh Dursawat, informed about the significance of Vishwakarma Scheme launched on the auspicious occasion of Vishwakarma Jayanti. He said, the scheme will provide support to artisans and craftspeople in rural and urban areas across India. He said, the Administration will earnestly implement PM Vishwakarma scheme for the benefit of all artisans and craftsmen of the Islands.

The programme concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by the Chief Engineer, CPWD, Chennai, Shri Rajesh Khare.

2. That my daughter is Minor and her Date of Birth is 13-11-2016.
3. That I want to change my daughter's name from R. Rukhsar to Mansi.
4. That, henceforth my daughter's name may be corrected and read as MANSI in all recorded documents for future purpose and intent.

The contents made in paragraph No.1 to 4 are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
Solemnly affirmed and verified at Port Blair on this 11 August, 2023.

DEPONENT

AFFIDAVIT

I, Smt. M. Gouri Bai, W/o Shri Ram Sat Narayan, R/o HS/SSA/527, Shadipur Village under Port Blair Tehsil, South Andaman District, having Aadhaar No.9578 0994 9005, aged about 59 years, do hereby solemnly affirm and declare as follows:

1. That I am working as Private Secretary in Forest Department, Van Sadan.
2. That in my service record the name of my husband has been wrongly mentioned as M. Ram Satya Narayan instead of RAM SAT NARAYAN.
3. That the actual and correct name of my husband is RAM SAT NARAYAN.
4. That all the documents including the Aadhaar Card, PAN Card and identity cards etc. of my husband, the name of my husband has been entered as RAM SAT NARAYAN.
5. That inadvertently the name of my husband has been entered as M. Ram Satya Narayan instead of RAM SAT NARAYAN in my service record.
6. That, henceforth, for all purposes, the name of my husband shall be read as RAM SAT NARAYAN instead of M. Ram Satya Narayan.
7. That the above stated are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
