PM addresses MPs in Central Hall of Parliament during Special Session

We are heading to the new Parliament building with the resolve and determination to transform India into a developed nation: PM

New Delhi, Sept. 19(PIB)

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi addressed the Members of Parliament in the Central Hall during the Special Session today. The Prime Minister began the address to the house by conveying the best wishes on the occasion of Ganesh Chaturthi. He noted today's occasion when the proceedings of the House will be taking place in the new building of the Parliament. "We are heading to the new Parliament building with the resolve and determination to transform India into a developed nation", the Prime Minister said.

Speaking about the Parliament Building and the Central Hall, the Prime Minister dwelled on its inspiring history. He recalled that in the initial years this part of the building was used as a kind of library. He remembered that this was the place where the Constitution took shape and transfer of power took place at the time of Independence. He remembered that in this Central Hall India's National Flag and National Anthem were adopted. He informed that after 1952 about 41 Heads of States and Governments from all over the world have addressed the Parliament of India in the Central hall. Various Presidents of India addressed the Central hall 86 times, he informed. He said that Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha have passed about four thousand Acts in the last seven decades. He also talked about the Laws passed through the mechanism of the Joint Session and mentioned The Dowry Prohibition Act, Banking Service Commission Bill and Laws to fight terrorism in this regard. He also mentioned the law prohibiting Triple Talaq. Shri Modi highlighted Laws for the Transgenders and Divyangs.

Highlighting the contributions of the public representatives in repealing Article 370, the Prime Minister underlined with immense pride that the Constitution provided to us by our ancestors is now being implemented in Jammu & Kashmir. "Today, Jammu & Kashmir is progressing on the path of peace and development and its people do not wish to let opportunities slip out of their hands anymore", Shri Modi remarked.

Recalling his address from Red Fort during the Independence Day 2023, the Prime Minister emphasized that the correct time is now and it highlights the reemergence of India with a renewed consciousness. "Bharat is brimming with energy", Shri Modi emphasized as he noted that this renewed consciousness will enable every citizen to realize their dreams with dedication and hardwork. The Prime Minister expressed confidence that India is sure to reap the rewards on the chosen path. "Faster results can be achieved with a faster progress rate", he added. Referring to India's ascent into the top five economies, the Prime Minister said that the world and India is confident to break into the top three economies. He touched upon the robustness of India's banking sector. He noted the world's enthusiasm for India's digital infrastructure, UPI and Digital Stacks. He said that this success is a matter of amazement, attraction and acceptance for the world.

The Prime Minister underlined the importance of the current times when Indian aspirations are at their all time high in thousand years. He said India whose aspirations were chained for thousand years is not ready to wait now it wants to move with aspirations and create new goals. He said that amidst new aspirations, framing new laws and getting rid of outdated laws is the highest responsibility of the Parliamentarians.

The Prime Minister underlined that it is the expectation of every citizen and the belief of every Parliamentarian that all passed laws, discussions and messages relayed from the Parliament should encourage Indian aspirations. "Highest priority should be accorded to the roots of Indian aspirations for every reform that is introduced in the Parliament", the Prime Minister emphasized.

The Prime Minister asked whether a big painting can be painted on a small canvas. He said without expanding the canvas of our thinking, we

PM addresses Lok Sabha in New Parliament Building

At the first proceeding, PM introduces Narishakti Vandan Adhiniyam

New Delhi, Sept. 19(PIB)

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi addressed the Lok Sabha in the new building of the Parliament today. Addressing the House, the Prime Minister said that today is the historic first session in the New Parliament Building and conveyed his best wishes on the occasion. He expressed gratitude towards the Speaker for giving him the opportunity to address the House on the Special Session on the very first day of the New Parliament and extended a warm welcome to the Members of the House. Highlighting the importance of the occasion, the Prime Minister remarked that it is the dawn of the Amrit Kaal as India is moving forward with a resolve for the future by heading into the new Parliament edifice. Highlighting the recent achievements, the Prime Minister mentioned the successes of Chandrayaan 3 in the science sector, and the organization of G20 and its impact on the global level. He remarked that a unique opportunity presents itself to India, and in this light, the New Parliament building of the nation is becoming functional today. Referring to the auspicious occasion of Ganesh Chaturthi, the Prime Minister said that Lord Ganesh is the God of prosperity, auspiciousness, reason and knowledge. "It is the time to accomplish the resolutions and begin the new journey with renewed enthusiasm and energy", the Prime Minister added. Remembering Lokmanya

Narendra Modi, Prime Minister

Tilak on the occasion of Ganesh Chaturthi and the new beginning, the Prime Minister said that during the Freedom Struggle, Lokmanya Tilak converted Ganesh Chaturthi into a medium of igniting the flame of Swaraj in the entire country. Today we are moving with the same inspiration, Shri Modi said.

The Prime Minister mentioned the presence of sacred Sengol as a link between the old and new and as a witness to the first light of freedom. He said that this sacred Sengol was touched by the first Prime Minister of India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. Therefore, Sengol links us with a very important part of our past, Shri Modi said.

The Prime Minister said that the grandeur of the New Building anoints the Amrit Kaal and remembered the hard work of the Shramiks and Engineers who kept on working on the building even during the pandemic. The Prime Minister led the applause for these Shramiks and Engineers by the entire House. He informed that more than 30 thousand Shramiks contributed to the building and mentioned the presence of a digital book carrying the full details of the Shramiks.

Talking about the impact of emotions and feelings on our actions, the Prime Minister said that our feelings today will guide us in our conduct. He said, "Bhawan (building) has changed, Bhav (feelings) should also change".

"The Parliament is the supreme position to serve the country", the Prime Minister remarked as he underlined that the House is not meant for the benefit

MESSAGE

POSHAN Abhiyan launched by Hon'ble Prime Minister in the year 2018 aims to achieve improvement in the status of nutrition of both children and women. Involvement of people in bringing behavioural change and inculcating the habit of a balanced diet through Jan Andolan and Community Mobilization are the two most important pillars to achieve this goal. POSHAN Maah aspires to reduce stunting, under-nutrition, low-birth weight and anemia. Every year, the month of September is celebrated as POSHAN Maah in the Islands along with rest of the nation.

The theme of current year for celebration of Rashtriya Poshan Maah is "Suposhit Bharat, Sakshar Bharat, Sashakt Bharat" (Nutrition-rich India, Educated India, Empowered India).

Department of Social Welfare in association with Panchayati Raj Institutions and line Department is organizing theme based programmes like awareness on exclusive breastfeeding and complementary feeding, Swasth Balak Spardha (SBS), Poshan Bhi Padhai Bhi, improving nutrition through Mission LiFE, adopting sustainable Food Systems by promoting Millet and Poshan Vatikas, adopting healthy lifestyles, through AYUSH practices like Yoga and physical exercise, Meri Mati Mera Desh (MMMD), Tribal focused nutrition sensitization and Test, Treat, Talk Anemia.

On this occasion, I appeal to all Islanders to make their valuable contribution in spreading the message of nutrition concepts and bringing behavioural changes in making A&N Islands free from malnutrition (Kuposhan Mukht Dweep)

Anti Corruption Unit adopts Zero Tolerance Policy towards Corruption in A&N Islands

Develops QR Code-based system to register complaints

Port Blair, Sept. 19

Administration of the Union Territory of Andaman and Nicobar Islands has a resolute 'Zero Tolerance' policy towards corruption. To display its commitment to the fight against Corruption, the Anti-Corruption Unit (ACU) has developed a QR Code-based system, which is being affixed across Government Offices and Websites etc. in Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

This QR Code can be scanned by citizens, facilitating easy and prompt submission of corruption-related complaints. Upon scanning, a unique "Complaint Number" will be generated for each case, ensuring a quick and streamlined complaint submission process.

Furthermore, citizens can use the "Track Complaint" feature on the web application, to monitor the progress of their reported cases,

To file a corruption-related complaint online and be part of this collective effort, scan the QR Code provided below:

using the assigned Complaint Number. This transparency empowers citizens and enhances accountability, within the administrative setup.

The QR Code has been affixed at prominent public locations within the Government Offices. The process is going on to affix the QR - code in all the Government Offices in A&N

Administration and Police. DySP (ACU) has also conducted a briefing session to educate both officials and the general public on the utilization of the QR code for reporting corruption-related complaints. This initiative aims to make the reporting of corruption cases simple, accessible and prompt for everyone.

The Administration of Andaman and Nicobar Islands, through the Anti-Corruption Unit has called upon the general public to actively participate in the fight against corruption, by utilizing this innovative QR Code-based system.

By doing so, citizens may contribute to the creation of a transparent and accountable Governance, a press release from SP (ACU) said.

ZSI to organize seminar on 'International Day for Preservation of Ozone Layer' today

Port Blair, Sept. 19

The World Ozone Day, observed every year on September 16, is also known as the International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer. As part of the celebration, ZSI, Port Blair will be organizing a one day seminar tomorrow (Sept.20) dedicated to September 16 "International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer". About 100 students, teachers, and researchers are expected to attend the workshop. The one-day seminar will be inaugurated by the Vice Chancellor, Pondicherry University, Puducherry, Prof. Gurmeet Singh on Sept. 20 at 10 am at ZSI.

The valedictory function will be held in the evening at 4.30 pm in which the Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS, will be the chief guest while the DGP, Shri Devesh Chandra Srivastva, IPS, will be the guest of honour. of any political party, but only for the development of the nation. As Members, the Prime Minister said that we must uphold the spirit of the Constitution with our words, thoughts and actions. Shri Modi assured the Speaker that every Member will live up to the expectations and aspirations of the House and work under his guidance. The Prime Minister emphasized that the behavior of the Members in the House will be one of the factors that determine if they will be part of the ruling dispensation or the opposition as all proceedings are taking place in the eyes of the public.

Stressing the need for collective dialogue and action for the general welfare, the Prime Minister emphasized the unity of goals. "All of us should follow the Lakshaman Rekha of parliamentary traditions", the Prime Minister said.

Underling the role of politics in the effective transformation of society, the Prime Minister focussed on the contribution of Indian women in sectors ranging from space to sports. He recalled how the world embraced the concept of women-led development during the G20. He said that the Government's steps in this direction have been meaningful. He said that among 50 crore beneficiaries of the Jan Dhan Scheme, most of the accounts belonged to women. He also mentioned benefits for women in schemes like Mudra Yojana, PM Awas Yojana.

Noting that there comes a time in the developmental journey of any nation when history is created, the Prime Minister said that today's occasion is India's moment in its development journey when history is being written. Throwing light on the discussions and deliberations in the Parliament on the reservation of women, the Prime Minister informed that the first bill on this issue was first introduced in 1996. He said that it was introduced in the House several times during Atal Ji's tenure but it could not garner the required support in numbers to turn the dreams of women into reality. "I believe God has chosen me to get this work done", Shri Modi interjected, as he informed that the Union Cabinet had decided to give a go-ahead to the Reservation of Women in Parliament Bill. "This historic day of 19th September, 2023 is going to be immortal in the history of India", the Prime Minister underlined. Observing the growing contributions of women in every sector, the Prime Minister emphasized the need for the inclusion of more women in policy-making so that their contributions to the nation increase further. He urged the members to open the doors of opportunities for women on this historic day.

"Taking forward the resolution of women-led development, our Government is today presenting a major Constitutional Amendment Bill. The purpose of this Bill is to expand the participation of women in Lok Sabha and Vidhan Sabhas. Narishakti Vandan Adhiniyam will further strengthen our democracy. I congratulate the mothers, sisters and daughters of the nation for Narishakti Vandan Adhiniyam. I assure all the mothers, sisters and daughters of the nation that we are committed to making this bill into law. I request as well as urge all the colleagues in this House as a pious auspicious beginning is being made, if this Bill becomes Law with consensus then its power will magnify manifold. Therefore, I request both the Houses to pass the bill with full consensus ", the Prime Minister concluded.

cannot create the grand India of our dreams. Referring to the grand heritage of India, the Prime Minister said that if our thinking gets linked with this grand heritage we can paint the painting of that grand India. "India will have to work on a big canvas. Time has gone to get entangled in small stuff", Shri Modi said. He underlined the primacy of creating Aatmnirbhar Bharat. He said that defying the initial apprehension, the world is talking about India's Aatmnirbhar Model. He said who will not want to be self-reliant in defence, manufacturing, energy and edible oil and in this quest party politics should not be an obstacle.

Emphasizing the need for India to scale new heights in the manufacturing sector, the Prime Minister highlighted the model of 'Zero Defect, Zero Effect', where Indian products should be free from any defects and the manufacturing process must have zero effect on the environment. He stressed moving forward with the objective of creating new global benchmarks in the manufacturing sector of India for products such as agricultural, designer, softwares, handicrafts etc. "One must possess the belief that our product will not only be the best in our villages, towns, districts and states but also the best in the world."

The Prime Minister touched upon the openness of the New Educational Policy and said that it has been universally accepted. Referring to the photograph of the ancient Nalanda University which was put up on display during the G20 Summit, the Prime Minister informed that it was a matter of incredulity for the foreign dignitaries to realize that the institution functioned in India 1500 years ago. "We must derive inspiration from this and focus on achieving our targets in the present", Shri Modi added.

Touching upon the growing sporting success scripted by the youth of the nation, the Prime Minister noted the rise of sports culture in tier 2 and tier 3 cities. "It should be the pledge of the nation that on every sports podium there should be our Tricolour", Shri Modi said. He also asked for a greater focus on quality in order to address the quality of life aspirations of common citizens.

The Prime Minister also noted the importance of being a country with a young demography. We want to create a scenario where India's youth is always at the forefront. He said India is doing skill development among the youth after mapping skill requirements at a global level. He mentioned the recent initiative of opening 150 nursing colleges which will prepare India's youth for fulfilling the global requirement of health professionals.

Underling the need to take correct decisions at the correct time, the Prime Minister said, "Decision making cannot be delayed" and also underlined that public representatives cannot be bound by political benefits or losses. Speaking about the Solar Power sector of the country, Shri Modi said that it is now providing a guarantee from the energy crises of the country. He also touched upon Mission Hydrogen, Semiconductor Mission and the Jal Jeevan Mission and said that it is paving the way for a better future. Stressing the need for Indian products to reach the global market and remain competitive, the Prime Minister touched upon developing the logistic sector of the country to decrease costs and making it accessible to every citizen. Emphasizing the need for Knowledge and innovation, the Prime Minister mentioned the Law regarding Research and Innovation that was passed recently. He said momentum and attraction generated by the success of Chandrayaan should not be wasted.

The Prime Minister said "Social Justice is our primary condition" and said that discussion on Social Justice has become very restricted and there is a need for a comprehensive look. He said Social justice involves empowering the deprived sections with connectivity, clean water, electricity, medical treatment and other basic amenities. He stressed that imbalance in development is also against social justice and mentioned the backwardness of the eastern part of the country. "By strengthening our eastern part we have to impart the power of social justice there", Shri Modi said. He mentioned the Aspirational Districts Scheme that has given a push to balanced development. The scheme has been extended to 500 blocks.

"The entire world is looking towards India", the Prime Minister remarked as he noted that India was considered neutral country during the Cold War era but today, India is known as 'Vishwa Mitra' where India is reaching out to other nations for friendly relations while they are looking forward to a friend in India. He mentioned that India is reaping the benefits of such a foreign policy as the nation has emerged as a stable supply chain for the world. Shri Modi stated that the G20 Summit was a medium to fulfil the needs of the global south and expressed confidence that future generations will feel immense pride for this momentous achievement. "The seeds planted by the G20 Summit will turn into a huge Banyan Tree of trust for the world", Shri Modi added. The Prime Minister mentioned the Biofuel Alliance that was formalized in the G20 Summit. He said that a huge Biofuel movement is taking place at a global level under the leadership of India.

The Prime Minister requested the Vice President and the Speaker that the glory and dignity of the current building should be protected at all cost and it should not be relegated to the status of Old Parliament building. He said that the building would be called 'Samvidhan Sadan'. "As Samvidhan Sadan, the old building will continue to guide us and will keep reminding us about the great personalities who were part of the Constituent Assembly", the Prime Minister concluded.
