INS Cheetah, Guldar and Kumbhir decommissioned after 40 years of glorious service

Decommissioning marks end of a significant chapter of Indian Navy's history

Port Blair, Jan. 12

Indian Navy Ships Cheetah, Guldar and Kumbhir were decommissioned today after rendering four decades of glorious service to the nation. The decommissioning event was conducted at Port Blair in a traditional ceremony wherein the National Flag, the Naval Ensign and Decommissioning Pennants of the three ships were lowered for the last time, at sunset.

Cheetah, Guldar and Kumbhir were built at Gdynia Shipyard, Poland as Polnocny class Landing Ships and were commissioned into the Indian Navy in 1984, 1985 and 1986 respectively, by Shri S K Arora (Cheetah and Guldar) and Shri A K Das (Kumbhir) then Ambassadors of India to Poland. The Commanding Officer of the three ships were Cdr V B Mishra, Lt Cdr SK Singh and Lt Cdr J Banerjee respectively. During her initial years, Cheetah was based at Kochi and Chennai for brief periods, and Kumbhir and Guldar were based at Visakhapatnam. The ships were subsequently re-based at Andaman and Nicobar Command, where they served till their decommissioning. These ships were in active Naval service for nearly 40 years and

Chief Secretary lays foundation stone for roads at Shaheed Dweep and interacts with PRI Members

Marked improvement in sectors like Electricity, Water, Road & Connectivity can be seen in the days to come: CS

Port Blair, Jan. 12

The Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS arrived on a two-day visit to Shaheed Dweep today. On arrival at the Shaheed Dweep Helipad, the Chief Secretary was accorded a warm welcome. Soon after arrival, the Chief Secretary laid foundation stone for improvement of three roads at Shaheed Dweep in the presence of Chief Engineer, APWD, Er. S. Thej Bahadur, Pramukh, Panchayat Samiti, Smti. Champa Das, Zilla Parishad Member, Shri Dasarath Varama, Pradhan, Smti. Pinkey Das and SE, APWD, Shri Kishore Narayan.

Addressing the gathering, the Chief Secretary stated that the Administration is committed to provide four basic needs of the people viz. Electricity, Water, Road & Transportation and in the coming days, marked improvement can be seen in all these sectors. The Chief Secretary mentioned that regular meetings are held to focus on these sectors. Mentioning that the climatic condition in A&N Islands is different from other parts of the country, he said construction of roads can be only done during 4 to 5 months, as rest of the months are rainy season and the road work cannot be taken up. During this limited period, we need to construct the road and the works are done on war footing. The Chief Secretary said that in Shaheed Dweep, 9.85 kilometers is to be constructed and urged the contractors to construct quality roads with devotion, which will be praised by the people. With the coming up of these roads, the long felt demand of the people will be fulfilled, he remarked. Thereafter, the Chief Secretary held meeting with the PRI Members at Community Hall Shaheed Dweep. The Pradhan, Smti. Pinkey Das welcomed the Chief Secretary. During the interaction, the Chief Secretary informed the PRIs and others that during the last meeting held on 12.01.2023, 59 issues were raised, out of which 34 issues have been resolved, 14 issues are in progress and 11 grievances could not be taken up due to budget constraints. The foremost priority of the Administration is on sectors like power, road, health, shipping, water and connectivity. He said, aspirations of the people are attended to on top priority, subject to availability of funds. The Chief Secretary also urged the PRI Members to create greater awareness among the people to install rain water harvesting system and solar roof top plant in their buildings. The PRI Members raised various new issues concerning collectively traversed about 17 lakh nautical miles whilst being at sea for over 12,300 days. As the amphibian platforms of the Andaman and Nicobar Command, these ships have conducted over 1300 beaching operations for landing of army troops ashore.

During their illustrious journeys, these ships participated in numerous maritime security missions and Humanitarian Assistance and Disaster Relief operations. Notable amongst them are their role during Operation Aman as part of IPKF operations and Operation Tasha a joint operation carried out between Indian Navy and Indian Coast Guard in May 1990 to control smuggling of arms and ammunition and illegal immigration across Indian and Srilankan border and made stellar contributions in relief operations post 1997 cyclone off Sri Lanka and the 2004 Indian Ocean Tsunami.

Indian Naval Ships Cheetah, Guldar and Kumbhir have left an indelible mark on the maritime landscape, and their decommissioning marks the end of a significant chapter of the Indian Navy's history.

Air Marshal Sajū Balakrishnan AVSM, VM, Commander-in-Chief Andaman and Nicobar Command (CINCAN), Vice Admiral Tarun Sobti, AVSM, VSM, Deputy Chief of Naval Staff, Flag Officers, former Commanding Officers, and commissioning crew of the three ships attended the ceremonies at Port Blair. The event was also unique since three warships of the same class were decommissioned simultaneously on a single day.

Procedures of legal adoption through State
Adoption Resource Agency (SARA) highlighted

Port Blair, Jan. 12

The State Adoption Resource Agency (SARA) under the State Child Protection Society has been working to promote legal adoption and provide assistance to those seeking to adopt. Dr. Nitin Shakya, Director (Social Welfare), emphasized the importance of legal adoption and highlighted the procedures involved in the adoption process. He informed that Adoption is a legal procedure that provides children with a permanent and loving family environment. It is essential to go through the proper channels and ensure that the adoption is conducted in a legal and ethical manner. SARA helps facilitate this process by providing support and guidance to prospective adoptive parents.

Shri G. Koteswar Rao, Program Manager, SARA informed on raising awareness about adoption and its significance in providing stable homes to children in need. He highlighted the procedures as part of the adoptions. The following are the procedures for adoption: > Application and Registration: Prospective adoptive parents are required to fill out an application form and register with SARA.

> Home Study: A thorough assessment of the prospective adoptive parents' home environment and personal background is conducted to ensure their stability for adoption.

> Counseling and Training: SARA provides counseling and training sessions to prepare prospective adoptive parents for the responsibilities of raising an adopted child.

> Matching and Placement: SARA works to match children available for adoption with suitable families and facilitates the placement process.

> Legal Formalities: The final step involves completing the legal formalities and obtaining the necessary court orders for the adoption to be legally recognized. (Source: Directorate of Social Welfare)
