New Delhi, May 13

Telecom Regulatory Authority of India, TRAI has issued directions to Access Providers to stop misuse of message templates under Telecom C o m m e r c i a l C o m m u n i c a t i o n Customer Preference Regulations, 2018. Ministry of Communications said TRAI has been taking various steps to curb U n s o l i c i t e d C o m m e r c i a l Communication which is a major source of inconvenience to the public and impinges on the privacy of individuals.

TRAI has directed all the Access Providers that the use of more than three variable parts in the contents shall be permitted only with proper justification and additional checks. It has mandated that Access Providers shall have to designate a separate approving authority for such content templates. Each variable part needs to be pre-tagged for the purpose it is proposed to be used. A minimum of thirty percent of the message should comprise a fixed part so that intent of the original message, for which the content template was approved, is not changed by the intermediaries. All the Telecom Service Providers have been directed to furnish compliance report within 45 days. (Source:india.gov.in)

A&N Police urges bus drivers to park buses at designated parking place only Traffic violations may be reported through WhatsApp/Twitter of A&N Traffic Police

Port Blair, May 13

It has been noticed that some buses are not being parked in the designated parking spaces resulting in traffic congestion which is a violation of law and can also create safety hazards for other drivers and pedestrians. In this regard, the A&N Police has urged all bus drivers to follow the designated parking guidelines and park only in the areas designated for buses. Failure to do so may result in penalties or fines.

In addition, the general public have also been advised not to park their vehicles in bus boxes or on road obstructively. If found parked obstructively, a necessary action will be taken.

General public have also been informed to report traffic violations at the portals of A&N Traffic Police and appropriate action would be taken against them. Traffic Control Room Number: 03192-243812; WhatsApp: 9531892228 and Twitter: <https://twitter.com/ANTrafficPolice>, a press release from A&N Police said.

Coconut climbing devices provided to Nicobarese farmers at Little Andaman

Port Blair, May 13

Coconut cultivation in the Islands is an important sector that is going through multiple challenges. Lack of skilled manpower for harvesting, crown cleaning and other farm operations has been one of the key factors affecting the sector. Use of suitable technologies could help in addressing the challenges of present day agriculture and coconut climbing devices are one such simple yet effective means for reducing the drudgery involved in the climbing of palms. To extend the benefits of these farmers-friendly devices, ICAR-CIARI has been actively involved for many years in popularization of this technology among the Nicobari tribal farmers, for whom coconut is a mainstay crop.

Popularity of the device is evident by christening of the device as chaklak by the tribal farmers. As part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, Dr. Ajit Arun Waman, Scientist-SS, ICAR-CIARI c o o r d i n a t e d demonstration and d i s t r i b u t i o n programme at Harminder Bay, Little Andaman under Scheduled Tribe Component on May 9, 2023.

During the d i s t r i b u t i o n programme, the elected representatives of Tribal Council, Harminder Bay selected 100 beneficiaries, to whom climbing devices were provided for use in their day to day activity. 40 existing users, to whom the devices were distributed by ICAR-CIARI during past years, were provided with spare ropes and fixtures as m a i n t e n a n c e replacement so as to ensure their safety. Shri Andrew Moses, First Headman and Shri Festus N., Secretary, Tribal Council, Harminder Bay termed the event as Chaklak festival seeing the enthusiasm of the participants, a press release from CIARI said.

Operating Procedures for various operations at sea. The sharing of data related to contacts picked up by Maritime Patrol Aircraft of both Navies was also practiced. 35th INDO-THAI CORPAT greatly improved the understanding and synergy, between the two navies thereby contributing towards enhancing maritime security in the region.

35th INDO-THAI CORPAT involved active participation of elements from Indian Air Force (IAF) and Indian Army (IA) Components of ANC thereby enhancing jointness. This exercise, provided exposure to other components of ANC (IAF and IA) in preventing and suppressing unlawful activities, including Illegal Unreported Unregulated (IUU) fishing, drug trafficking, piracy, and armed robbery. In addition to engaging in professional interactions, the participants of CORPAT renewed their bonds through a friendly football match and invigorating yoga sessions. These activities not only fostered a sense of camaraderie but also strengthened the enduring bonds between the two nations. Shri Nagesh Singh, Ambassador of India to Thailand, added a touch of warmth and camaraderie to the deck reception during the Harbour visit of INS Kesari at Thailand.

Participation by an LST (L) class of ship, INS Kesari in the 35th INDO-THAI CORPAT demonstrates India's commitment to promoting peace, security, and stability in the region. The coordinated efforts between the Royal Thailand Navy and Indian Navy will undoubtedly strengthen the friendship between the two nations and reinforce the vital role of maritime security in ensuring regional stability and prosperity, a press release from HQ ANC said.
