42nd Foundation Day of NABARD celebrated

NABARD is not just a bank but a mission to strengthen the country's rural system: Union Home Minister

New Delhi, July 13 (PIB)
Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah addressed the 42nd Foundation Day function of NABARD as the chief guest at Pragati Maidan in New Delhi yesterday. On this occasion, Shri Amit Shah also distributed Micro-ATM cards to milk societies and RuPay Kisan Credit cards to the members of these societies.
In his address, Shri Amit Shah said that India which has about 65 percent rural population cannot be imagined without NABARD. He said that, NABARD has worked as the backbone of this country's rural economy, infrastructure, agriculture, cooperative institutions and Self Help Groups of this country for last 4 decades. Shri Shah said that under the leadership of Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi not only the cities of India, but the villages are also becoming self-sufficient today. Along with this, our agricultural economy, which is considered to be the soul of the rural economy, is also growing very rapidly and in the agricultural economy, co-operative sector is connected in such a way that it cannot be separated. He said that

NABARD has played a huge role in helping the Self Help Groups to stand on their feet which enabled every person of village especially mothers and sisters to become self-reliant and establish themselves in the society with respect.

The Union Minister of Cooperation said that in the last 42 years NABARD has taken initiatives in many sectors, especially, NABARD has taken forward the work of refinance and capital formation very well. He said that so far an amount of about Rs. 8 lakh crore has gone to the rural economy through NABARD for capital formation. He said that under various schemes, NABARD has refinanced Rs. 12 lakh crore to the rural agricultural economy to meet the needs of agriculture and farmers and to strengthen and diversify agri-production. Shri Shah said that in the last 42 years, NABARD has refinanced Rs 20 lakh crore in the rural economy with a growth rate of 14 percent. He said that without this achievement the country's rural economy and its development cannot be imagined. He added that we should set such goals, which encourage people to work and inspire others to progress ahead.

Shri Amit Shah said that in 1982, the short-term loan of Rs.896 crore was provided for agriculture finance, which NABARD has taken to Rs.1.58 lakh crore today. He said that in 1982 the long term agriculture loan was only Rs 2300 crore, which has been increased to Rs1 Lakh crore by NABARD today.

The Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation said that we are in the year of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav and the Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi has set a target in front of us and has asked us to take a resolution of where India would be in every field after the completion of 100 years of independence. He said that no one except NABARD can achieve the target of development of country's rural economy, agriculture, finance of cooperative system and expansion of Self Help Groups and rural infrastructure.

The Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation said that today, the District Cooperative Bank has initiated the service of providing Rupay credit cards along with debit cards. He said that under the co-operative scheme, the bank accounts of members of all co-operative societies have been transferred to the district co-operative bank and all the milk producer societies have been included as "Bank Mitra." Shri Shah said that if we move ahead with the concept of Cooperation among Cooperatives in the cooperative system of the country and if the entire money from PACS to APACS remains within its fold, then the cooperative system will require no money from anybody. Shri Amit Shah said that NABARD is not just a bank but a mission to strengthen the country's rural system. He said that the targets of NABARD should be fixed on financial parameters, but along with these, the targets of human and rural development will also have to be fixed. He said that three Multi-State Cooperative Societies have been formed under the leadership of Prime Minister, Shri Modi. Multi-State Cooperative Organic Society has been formed to ensure that farmers get fair prices for organic products in the global market, Multi-State Cooperative Export Cooperative Society has been formed to export our agricultural products to the world market and for the protection, promotion and development of our traditional seeds Multi-State Cooperative Seed Society has also been formed which will increase the production and marketing of high yielding seeds.
