Culture of digital payments growing in India; transactions worth Rs. 20,000 crore done in the country every day: PM

Technology is changing lives of ordinary people

New Delhi, April 24

Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi today expressed satisfaction that the culture of digital payments is growing in India. Addressing the nation in his Mann Ki Baat programme on All India Radio, Shri Modi said UPI has rapidly become part of the country's economy as people are transacting through UPI even in remote villages and small towns. He stated that digital transactions worth 20 thousand crore rupees are being done in the country every day. In March, UPI transactions reached around 10 lakh crore rupees.

Mann Ki Baat

The Prime Minister pointed out that many new start-ups related to Fin-tech are also coming up in the country. Shri Modi gave the example of Sagarika and Preksha, who experimented with Cashless Day Out in Delhi. Both of them used digital payments for their expenses for the entire day. He said the girls were able to pay via online transactions even at roadside stalls. He also mentioned Anandita Tripathi from Ghaziabad who wrote to him saying that she journeyed across Northeast and was able to avail the benefit of digital transactions even in remote areas.

The Prime Minister

stated that technology is changing the lives of ordinary people. He said that technology has made lives easier for Divyang people and enabled them to reach new heights. He said, the Government is constantly making efforts to make resources and infrastructure accessible to the differently-abled. Shri Modi said there are many start-ups and organizations which are doing inspirational work in this direction. He mentioned one such organization - Voice of Specially Aabled People,

13th National Panchayati Raj Day observed

with great fervour across A&N Islands

Five Gram Panchayats in Isles conferred with National Awards under different categories

Property Cards distributed to beneficiaries at GP Calicut

Port Blair, April 24

National Panchayati Raj Day (NPRD) is observed on 24th April every year to celebrate the constitutional status accorded to Panchayati Raj system in the country. It is celebrated to commemorate the passing of the 73rd Constitutional Amendment Act in 1992. The 73rd Amendment Act, also known as the Panchayati Raj Amendment Act allowed the State Governments to take necessary steps and measures that can help in the formation of Gram Panchayats and allow them to operate as 'Units of Self-Governance'.

This occasion provides an opportunity for direct dialogue with Panchayat representatives from all over the country as well as recognizing their achievements to empower and motivate them. The objective of the celebrating the National Panchayati Raj Day is to increase awareness about Panchayats and Gram Sabhas, the institutions of the local self-

Governments for the rural areas mandated by the Constitution, and also about their roles, responsibilities, achievements, concerns, resolutions etc.

Joining with the rest of the parts of the country, Gram Sabha's were also organised at all the 70 Gram Panchayats across the Islands to mark the 13th National Panchayati Raj Day. On this occasion, Shri Suneel Anchipaka, Secretary (RD/Panchayats), distributed the Property Card to the beneficiaries in Gram Sabha held at GP Calicut.

The Ministry of Panchayati Raj also honours the Panchayats which is promoting new opportunities in the field of assistive technology. Voice of Specially Aabled People has prepared a digital art gallery of paintings of Divyang artists.

Prime Minister said, availability or scarcity of water determine the progress and speed of any country. He quoted from the scriptures and said water is the basis of life of every living being and water is also the biggest resource. He added that saving water and building ponds have been termed as social and spiritual duty in the Vedas and Puranas. In Valmiki Ramayana, special emphasis has been laid on water conservation, and connecting water sources. Shri Modi said that even during the Indus-Saraswati and Harappan civilizations, an interconnected system of water sources existed. He said, the country is moving forward with the resolve to conserve water in the 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav'. During the Amrit Mahotsav, 75 Amrit Sarovars will be built in every district of the country. (Source: india.gov.in) the effort of the Government, he stressed, that the role of Panchayat should deepen in planning and implementation of every project related to the development of the village. "With this, Panchayat will emerge as an important link in the achievement of national resolutions", he added. The Prime Minister said that 75 sarovars will come up in every district by 15th August in 2023. He urged that these sarovars should be lined with trees named after the martyrs and freedom fighters. Shri Modi also elaborated upon the push for transparency and empowerment of Gram Panchayats. Measures like e-Gram Swaraj are linking processes from planning to payment. Panchayats will be audited online and a system of citizen charter for all the Gram Sabha is encouraging the Sabhas for taking up many roles. He also highlighted the role of women in these institutions and village governance especially water governance.

Reiterating his push for natural farming the Prime Minister said that it is critical to free mother earth of chemicals as it is harming the land and groundwater. He said if our villages move towards natural farming that will benefit entire humanity. He asked to explore how natural farming can be promoted at the level of Gram Panchayats, for this collective efforts are needed. Similarly, Gram Panchayats will play a major role in combating malnutrition with the help of 'Sabka Prayas'. "People on the ground have to be made aware about the initiative taken by the Central Government to save the country from malnutrition and anemia. Now the rice being given under the Government schemes is being fortified", he informed.

The Prime Minister handed over SVAMITVA cards to beneficiaries. He also transferred award money to Panchayats which are winners of awards given across different categories on National Panchayati Raj Day for their achievements. With a view to ensure rejuvenation of water bodies, the Prime Minister also launched a new initiative named Amrit Sarovar. It is aimed at developing and rejuvenating 75 water bodies in each district of the country as a part of celebration of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav.

by awarding them for their relentless work. There are different categories under which the awards are conferred. This year 2022 (Appraisal Year 2020-21) five Gram Panchayats in Andaman & Nicobar Islands were conferred with National Awards namely;

- Nanaji Deshmukh Rashtriya Gaurav Gram Sabha Puraskar (NDRGGSP) to Gram Panchayat Subhashgram.
- Deen Dayal Upadhyay Panchayat Sashaktikaran Puraskar (DDUPSP) to Gram Panchayat at Ferrargunj & Gram Panchayat Subhashgram.
- Child-Friendly Gram Panchayat Award (CFGPA) to Gram Panchayat Paschimsagar.
- Gram Panchayat Development Plan Award to GP Mannarghat.

National Panchayati Raj Day will serve as an important occasion as well as a significant step towards creating awareness and building momentum and also building institutional, individual, cross-organizational and operational capabilities for achieving the global SDGs agenda in local context by 2030.

This year Gram Panchayats have a pivotal role to play in integrated rural development by focusing on the 17 SDGs which are subsumed under nine themes to ensure Poverty Free, Healthy, Child-Friendly, Water Sufficient, Clean & Green, Self-Sufficient, Socially Secured, Good Governance and Engendered Development in village. Three such themes adopted as Sankalp by Gram Panchayats in specially convened Gram Sabhas on 24th April, 2022.

Gram Panchayats across the Islands also made necessary arrangements to telecast live event of Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi. The PM visited Palli Panchayat in Samba district, Jammu & Kashmir. Interacted with local Panchayat representatives and addressed the elected representatives and functionaries of Panchayati Raj Institutions as well as Gram Sabhas across the country on this momentous occasion, a press release from Secretary (RD/ Panchayats) said.

The Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman briefed the gathering about the details of the SVAMITVA Scheme which is a reformative step towards establishment of clear ownership of property in rural inhabited areas by mapping of land parcels using drone technology and providing a Record of Right to village household owners with issuance of legal ownership cards (Property Cards/Title Deeds) to the property owners. He explained that the scheme covers multifarious aspects viz. facilitating monetization of properties and enabling bank loan, reducing property related disputes, comprehensive village level planning that would be the stepping stone towards achieving Gram Swaraj in true sense.

The Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman and the Adhyaksha, Zilla Parishad, South Andaman handed over the Property Cards/Title Deeds to some of the property owners of different villages at the Gram Sabha.

Thereafter, a pledge on achieving the goals of 3 themes of SDGs (Healthy Village, Water Sufficient Village and Engendered Development in Villages) was administered to the august gathering in the Gram Sabha, a press release from DC (SA) said.

Ensuring accountability & transparency...

Social Audit is a process for ensuring the accountability and transparency in which the details of financial and non-financial resources used in the implementation of development projects/programme and their objectives are shared with the villagers and then villagers examine these details, verify, seek clarifications and convey their options including suggestions for corrective actions and improvements to the Gram Panchayat/other Implementing Agency. The Ministry of Rural Development, GoI had issued directions to engage Village Resource Persons to conduct Social Audit in all Gram Panchayats and Tribal Councils of this UT under MGNREGA and accordingly, the Rural Development Department planned to get the Community Resource Persons/Active Self Help Group (SHG) members trained work as Social Auditors under MGNREGA.

The theoretical session of the training was held in the training hall of Directorate of RD, PRIs & ULBs and later practical was done in two Gram Panchayats namely Beodnabad and Mithakhari. The Demo Social Audit was also conducted in Beodnabad and Mithakhari Gram Panchayat, a press release from Directorate of RD said.
