A spinally strong, fair and independent Justice System is safest guarantee to flourishing of democratic values: Vice President

New Delhi, Aug. 22 (PIB)

The Vice President, Shri Jagdeep Dhankhar today highlighted that a spinally strong, fair and independent Justice System is the safest guarantee to blossoming and flourishing of democratic values. Addressing a gathering during a felicitation ceremony organised by the Supreme Court Bar Association in his honour in New Delhi today, the Vice President quoted the popular Sanskrit verse 'धर्मो रक्षति रक्षितः' (the law protects us if we preserve its sanctity), and termed it as the 'nectar' of democracy and rule of law. Observing that there is widespread perception that this wholesome principle is contemporaneously under strain, he asked the people in authority and high positions to keep law above everything in larger public interest and to further and enhance democratic echo system. Quoting Thomas Fuller, he said "Be you ever so high, the law is always above you."

On this occasion, Shri Dhankhar emphasised that Expressing his gratitude to the Supreme Court Bar Association, Shri Dhankhar said that on this occasion, he felt like experiencing trepidation reminiscent of his first appearance in court. He also thanked the judges and senior advocates who moulded him during his formative days.

Union Minister for Law and Justice, Shri Kiren Rijiju, the Chief Justice of India, Justice N V Ramana, Judges of Supreme Court, Solicitor General of India, Shri Tushar Mehta, President of Supreme Court Bar Association & Senior Advocate, Shri Vikash Singh, functionaries of the Supreme Court Bar Association and Members of the Bar attended the felicitation ceremony.

Tribal farmers sensitized about woody pepper cultivation under DBT, New Delhi funded project

Port Blair, Aug. 22

Spices have been the important cash crops grown in different parts of the Islands. Apart from spices which are grown on commercial scale, local woody pepper spice is popular among the Island settler communities. In order to sensitize the benefits of cultivating this unique spice, an awareness programme on 'Woody pepper as a profitable spice for the Islands' was conducted on August 18, 2022 under the Department of Biotechnology, New Delhi funded project being implemented by ICAR-CIARI, Port Blair.

During the programme, Dr. Ajit

Arun Waman, Principal Investigator and organizer of the event informed the gathering about the significance of cultivation of woody pepper in the Islands. Farmers were informed about the package of practices to be followed for its cultivation. Various do's and don'ts were discussed to make the practices comprehensive to the farmers. To promote cultivation of this spice in the backyards, planting material of woody pepper was distributed to tribal farmers from Harminder Bay, Little Andaman. The programme was attended by 25 farmers along with Shri Andrew Moses, First Headman, Shri Yoseph, Second Headman and Shri Festus, Secretary, Tribal Council, a press release from CIARI said.
